(ORDER PASSED BY HON'BLE SHRI A.B.GORTHY, MEMBER (A))

In this application the relief claimed by the applicant is for declaration that she is entitled to Productivity Link Bonus (P.L.Bonus) at the rate applicable to the regular Postal Assistants from 28-5-82 to 30-6-89 and to direct the respondents to pay the same to her.

2. The applicant was selected for appointment as Postal Assistant but was initially offered appointment as Reserve Trained Pool Postal Assistant (RTPPA). She worked in that assignment from 28-5-82 to 30-6-89 after having undergone the required job orientation training. On 1-7-89 she was given regular postal appointment. The applicant claims that she having worked for more than 240 days in each year during the period of 1982 to 1989 she is entitled to P.L. Bonus at the rate as is applicable to regular Postal Assistants.

3. Heard learned counsel for both the parties.

Mr. Krishna Devan, learned counsel for the applicant has drawn our attention to a judgement of the Ernakulam Bench of the Tribunal in a similar matter. In that case it was held that RTP Postal Assistants who put in 240 days of service in each year ending 31st March would be entitled to P.L.Bonus. It was further held that the amount of P.L.Bonus would be based on their average monthly emoluments determined by dividing the total emoluments for each accounting year of eligibility by 12 and subject to other conditions of the scheme prescribed from time to time.

4. As the applicant herein is similarly situated as the applicants in the case (OA 171/89) decided by the Ernakulam Bench of the Tribunal we see no reason why the applicant should not be given similar benefit.

5. Consequently we allow this G.A. at the admission stage itself with a direction to the respondents to grant to the applicant the same benefits as granted by the Ernakulam Bench of the Tribunal in the aforesaid case. The respondents shall comply with this order within a period of 3 months from the date of communication of this orders. No order as to costs.
