O.A.No.666/94

{ As per Hon'ble Shri A.V.Haridasan, Member (Judl.) }

The applicant is a casual labour had filed this application under Section 19 of the Administrative Tribunals Act praying that it may be declared that he is entitled for conferment of temporary status w.e.f. 1.10.89, that he is entitled to have the period of his absence on account of the criminal case against him as duty for all purposes, that he is entitled to have seniority fixed from 1.10.89, that he is entitled to absorption in ^{Group 'D' post} 2 w.e.f. 1.4.94 and that he is entitled to all other consequential benefits.

2. In brief the facts are that the applicant was first engaged as a casual mazdoor in the year 1983 that there has been breaks in his service for more than 2 years for various reasons, that his engagement as casual mazdoor was stopped as he was implicated in a criminal case. In the criminal case the applicant was not allowed to work even as a casual mazdoor. The applicant has made several representations seeking reinstatement as also other consequential benefits. According to the applicant pursuant to his representation he has been reinstated as casual mazdoor on 1.10.89. He has been granted the other benefits like conferment of temporary status and regular absorption to which he is entitled on account of his service.

submitted that as the facts mentioned in the application are vague and as the claims made by the applicant in the various representations are not clear it would be appropriate if the applicant is directed to make a proper representation of his grievances with a further direction to the 2nd respondent to consider the representation with reference to the relevant documents and to take a proper decision within the stipulated time. Learned counsel for the applicant submits that the applicant ^{would be} ~~also~~ satisfied if the application is disposed of in that line. In the result the application is admitted and the same is disposed with a direction to the applicant to make a detailed representation projecting all his grievances to the second respondent within one month from today and with a direction to the 2nd respondent to consider the representation if made ~~within one month~~ ^{from today} with reference to the official records and to pass a speaking order and communicate the same to the applicant within a period of 2 months from the date of receipt of the representation. If the applicant feels aggrieved by the order of the 2nd respondent he will be at liberty to approach the Tribunal in accordance with law. No order as to costs.
