JUDGEMENT

AS PER HON'BLE JUSTICE SHRI V. NEELADRI RAO, VICE-CHAIRMAN I

Heard Shri V. Suryanarayana Sastry, learned counsel for the applicant and also Shri N.V. Ramana, learned standing counsel for the Respondents.

2. The applicant herein pleaded that he belongs to OBC and he <sup>had</sup> already sent an application to UPSC for Civil Services Examination, 1994, and the same was rejected by the UPSC vide letter dated 6-5-94 by observing that he crossed 28 years when the maximum age prescribed is only 28 years, and the applicant received <sup>notice of rejection</sup> ~~it~~ on 12-5-94.
It is further stated that preliminary examination in regard to Civil Services, 1994 is scheduled to be held on 26-6-94 and he could not approach the court earlier praying for a direction to the Respondents to permit him to appear for the said examination (as he is challenging the action of the UPSC in not relaxing the age up to 33 years as it is being done in regard to SCs/STs) for he appeared for Group I Services of A.P. State.

3. It is true that this Bench had given direction to the UPSC in the various cases filed that the applicants therein should be permitted to appear for the Civil Services Examination if they have not crossed 33 years and/or exhausted 3 chances already, <sup>if</sup> ~~if~~ those applicants are OBCs and if they send their applications in time, subject to the condition that they are not not be published until further orders. But in all those cases, the applicants approached this Tribunal about more than 3 weeks prior to 26-6-94. But it is not possible for the UPSC to make <sup>necessary</sup> arrangements for permitting the candidate to appear for the examination which is going to be held ~~after~~ 4 days from to-day. Hence we feel that relief prayed <sup>for</sup> in this OA has to be rejected on the ground of laches in approaching this Tribunal at a very late stage.

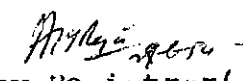

4. In the result, the OA is rejected at the admission stage itself with no costs.\
