ORDER

Hearā Sri C. Suryanarayana, learned counsel for the applicant and Sri N.R. Devaraj, learned counsel for the respondents.

2. It is not known as to why the applicant filed the CP instead of ~~MA~~ for implementation of the judgement. It is necessary to find out as to whether the allegation made by the applicant in the CP, especially in case where he had resorted to filing CP instead of filing MA for implementation of judgement, are correct or not. It will be convenient if notice is served on standing counsel even before the CP is registered for the standing counsel will be in a position to have the necessary instructions for being placed at the time of consideration of the CP for admission. Hence, we feel that it is just and proper for the applicant to issue notice to the standing counsel even if the particular officer is referred to by name as contemner. Hence, registration after notice is served on the standing counsel and if it is otherwise in order./
