Heard Mr.Y.Appala Raju, learned counsel for the

the letter No.S3/ED/RR/94 dated 11.12.96 (Page 16 of the MA) in pursuance of the direction given in the OA. The applicant submits that the respondents have not implemented the order of the Tribunal fully in the spirit in which they have given. Hence filing of this MA is in order.

3. A reading of the reply shows that the respondents have not relaxed the educational qualification after consideration and rejected his case. Even if any reply is given, final result will be the same as indicated by the respondents as above. Hence there will be no purpose if a direction is given in the MA for giving a speaking order in this connection. Hence we are of the opinion that the applicant can only challenge that reply given if he is so advised in accordance with law on the basis of the various contentions raised in this MA and the other contentions that are available to him. In view of the above, we agree with the objection raised by the office and reject this MA. However, rejection of this MA will not stand in the way of the applicant to file a fresh OA challenging the reply given by the respondents dated 11.12.96.

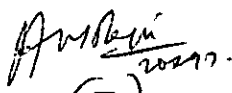

4. The MA is disposed of as above. No costs.
