2. The applicant herein was removed from service on charges of unauthorised absence and over-stay^{al} of leave granted to him between the periods 20-3-1991 to 20-6-1993. The appeal submitted by him against the penalty was turned down in June, 1995, by R-2 on the ground that the same was time-barred.

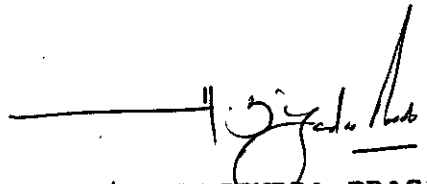

3. We have given careful consideration to all the facts and submissions made on behalf of the parties. The O.A is disposed of with a direction to the R-2 to examine the appeal submitted by the applicant on 7-11-1994 (Annexure.5 to the OA) and take a suitable decision on the merits of the case; in other words the appeal should not be rejected merely on the technical ground of time-bar.

4. While disposing of the appeal the Appellate Authority may consider whether the penultimate punishment of removal from service would operate very harshly against the applicant who, at the time of his removal, was only 35 years^{old} and would have^{had} still two decades of service ahead of him even at this stage. If it is considered necessary to reject the appeal submitted by the applicant, it may be considered whether any lesser punishment would meet the requirement of the case. In such an event the Appellate Authority shall be fully competent to treat the intervening period between the imposition of punishment and revised Appellate Authority order, if any, in any manner that he would like to exercise.

5. Thus the O.A. is disposed of. No costs.
