O.A.828/95.

Dt. of Decision : 21-12-95.

ORDER

{ As per Hon'ble Shri A.B. Gorthi, Member (Admn.) }

The applicant is the husband of Smt. Chinamma, whose share of land measuring ~~at~~ acre 0.28 cents in Survey No. 81/4 in Guntupalli was acquired for the construction of Wagon Workshop by the railways. After the acquisition of the land, the applicant married Smt. Chinamma. The land originally belong^{ed} to the Hindu undivided family but the father of Smt. Chinamma took necessary steps by approaching the competent Civil Court for ^{the} partition ^{of the} land, according to which the applicant's wife got ~~is~~ 0.28 cents as her share.

2. The respondents opposed the claim of the applicant by stating in their counter affidavit that the request of the applicant for employment was received after the prescribed date. They further contended that the applicant being the husband of the person losing the land, is not entitled to claim employment against the land losers' quota. They further stated that a member of the joint~~ed~~ family namely Shri P. Narasimha Rao was already given employment against land losers' quota.

3. Heard learned counsel for both the parties and perused the record. The record clearly indicates that the share of the applicant's wife in the landed property of the family was 0.28 cents and that it was acquired by the railways. Another ~~elder~~ sister of Smt. Chinamma, who also got 0.28 cents of land ~~as her~~ share was married to Sri Ch. Lakshmi Narayana Rao. The said Lakshmi Narayana Rao filed OA.63/92 claiming employment against the land losers' quota. That OA was allowed vide order dated 26-02-1993 with a direction to the respondents to offer suitable job to Sri Ch.Lakshmi Narayana Rao treating him as a land displaced person.

4. In view of the above, there is no reason why the same benefit cannot be given to the applicant before me. Accordingly this OA is allowed with a direction to the respondents to offer suitable employment to the applicant in his own turn and in accordance with ~~the~~ extant instructions.

5. The OA is ordered accordingly. No costs.
