The claim of the applicants is for a direction to the respondents to pay them Productivity Linked Bonus (P.L.Bonus) for the period they worked as Short Duty/RTP Sorting Assistants during the period 14.11.82 to 30.5.90.

2. The applicants state that they were initially appointed as Short Duty/RTP Sorting Assistants in RMS "Z" Division by R4 during November 1982. They were subsequently regularised as Sorting Assistants in the same division w.e.f. 30.5.90. Their claim is that they are entitled to P.L. Bonus for the period that they worked as Short Duty/RTP, as the said relief was given to similarly situated several other Short Duty/RTP Sorting Assistants.

3. Heard learned counsel for both the parties. Learned counsel for the applicant has drawn my attention to the decisions of the Ernakulam Bench of the Tribunal in O.A.No.612/89 and O.A.No.111/89.

judgements was that no distinction can be made between Short Duty/RTP worker and a casual labour in granting P.L.Bonus and if they had put in 240 days of service each year ending 31st March for 3 years or more they should be entitled to PL Bonus. The amount of said bonus would be based on their average monthly emoluments determined by dividing the total emoluments for each accounting year of eligibility by 12 and subject to other conditions prescribed from time to time.

4. The applicants herein are similarly situated as those in the afore-stated OAs. In the result, this application is allowed with a direction to the respondents to grant the applicant the same benefit as granted by the Ernakulam Bench (referred to in the preceeding para). The above direction should be complied with in a period of three months from the date of communication of this order. No order as to costs.
