Heard Sri S.Lakshma Reddy for the respondent No.3, Sri V.Bhimanna learned standing counsel for the official respondents and Sri D.Subramanyam for the applicant in the O.A.

2. The respondent No.3 in the OA has filed this review application praying to review the order dt.6-3-98 passed in OA 763/95.

3. The respondent No.3 was absent when the OA was heard and disposed of.

4. In the OA we have set aside the selection and appointment of respondent No.3 only on the ground that the superintendent of Post Offices while issuing the notification had not specifically mentioned that the post was reserved for SC category. Hence we had set aside the selection and appointment of Respondent No.3 and issued direction to the Superintendent of Post Offices to select and appoint the eligible candidate from among the persons who responded to the notification dt.8-3-95 including the respondent No.3 in the OA.

5. Hence we find no error apparent on record justifying the review. Accordingly review application is dismissed. No costs.
