Heard learned counsel for both the parties.

2. The applicant was initially engaged as a casual mazdoor on 15.2.86 and he worked as such till 30.9.89 with usual intermittent breaks. After 1.10.89 he was not again considered for re-engagement.

3. Learned counsel for the applicant contends that in view of the record of the service of the applicant the respondents should consider him for re-engagement in preference to others. 4. In view of the above, the application is admitted and is disposed of with the following directions to the respondents:-

- (1) The respondents shall verify the dates of working of the applicant.
- (2) The name of the applicant will be entered in the live casual labour register at an appropriate place keeping in view the number of days of service rendered by him.

(3) The applicant will be re-engaged as soon as there is work in preference to outsiders, freshers and those who rendered lesser number of days of service.

5. The question of condonation of break in service does not arise and for the purpose of re-engaging the applicant no casual labour presently working as such shall be retrenched.

6. The case of the applicant for grant of temporary status and subsequent regularisation shall be considered in accordance with the extant scheme/instructions.

7. O.A. is ordered accordingly without any order as to costs.
