Heard Mr. T.Pandu Ranga Chary, learned counsel for the applicant.

2. The claim of the applicants is for a in the live register for casual labour and to absorb them in the regular posts of Class IV with consequential benefits.

3. The applicants state that they were all engaged as casual labour even prior to 1.1.81 and continued as such even thereafter with certain intermittent breaks. The last assignment given to them as casual labour was from 22.10.84 to 16.1.85. Thereafter they were disengaged of the General Manager was obtained for their engagement as casual labour.

4. In support of their contention that they were engaged and worked as casual labour prior to 1984 they furnished copies of casual labour cards given to them by the department. From the correspondence attached as annexures 2, 3 and 4 to the OA it would be more than evident that the genuineness of the casual labour cards of the applicants was verified and found to be correct. Despite the respondents probing into the correctness or otherwise of the casual labour cards and despite coming to a conclusion, the applicants did work ~~as~~ casual labour in the past, no action has been taken to consider the cases of the applicants for re-engagement as casual labour.

5. When the application came up for admission respondents were given notice as to why the OA should not be admitted. Despite sufficient time and opportunity having been given, the respondents took no action in the matter. Consequently neither there is any reply filed nor even a memo of appearance from the respondents counsel on the record.

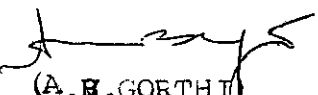

6. In view of the above we deem it just and proper to admit this OA and direct the respondents as under:-

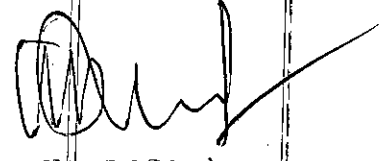

- (1) The names of the applicants ~~will be~~ in the live casual labour register at an appropriate place keeping in view the number of days ~~of work~~ for which they ~~are~~ worked in the past. <sup>then</sup> The position <sup>will be</sup> of casual labour register <sup>is</sup> intimated to them within one month.
- (2) The applicants will be considered for re-engagement as casual labour as and when there is work in preference to freshers and those who had rendered lesser number of days of service than the applicants. For this purpose no casual labour need be retrenched.
- (3) The case of the applicants for grant of temporary status and regularisation shall be considered by the respondents in accordance with the extant scheme/instructions.
