ORAL ORDER (PER HON'BLE SHRI B.S.JAI PARAMESHWAR, MEMBER (JUDL.)

None appeared for the applicant. The applicant was also absent when the application was taken up for hearing. Heard Mr.N.R.Devaraj, learned counsel for the respondents.

2. The applicant herein was appointed as Extra Departmental Mail Man at S.R.O., Cuddapah vide proceedings

R

No.B/EDMM/DN/Vol IV, dated 28.5.92. At the time of his appointment, he had produced a certificate issued to him by the Head Master, ZPH School, Yeguvapalle. On verification with the said school authorities, the certificate produced by the applicant was found to be a bogus one. Hence the services of the applicant were terminated under Rule 6 of the Posts & Telegraphs Departmental Agents (Conduct & Service) Rules, 1964. It is this order that has been challenged by the applicant.

3. The learned counsel for the respondents produced the records leading to termination of the applicant. The termination was ordered as the <sup>School -</sup> certificate produced by the applicant was found to be not genuine. On going through the records, we found that the Sub Record Officer, RMS, AG Division, Cuddapah, had issued the order of termination. We feel it appropriate that the reviewing authority may consider the case of the applicant and we do not wish to express any opinion as to the reasons for termination, <sup>genuineness</sup> ~~correctness~~ of the certificate and also the authority competent to issue the order of termination. Review is provided to the applicant under instruction No.7 under Rule 6 of the E.D.A. Conduct and Service Rules vide D.G.P&T No.18/1/65-Disc., dated 4.5.1965 which reads as under:-

"(7) No appeal but only review on an order of termination:-

It is already indicated in Rule 10 that there will be an appeal only against a penalty indicated in rule 7. There is, therefore, no right to appeal against an order of termination of services. An order of termination can, however, be reviewed within a period of six months under rule 16. The period of limitation for the purpose of submission of a petition as prescribed under the relevant rule in the P & T Manual, Volume II, would also be applicable to petition of an ED Agent against an order of termination of services."

4. In view of the above provision for review, we feel it appropriate to direct the applicant, if he is so advised, to file a review application to the Appropriate Authority. Hence, the OA is disposed of with the following direction:-

The applicant, if he is so advised, may prefer a review application against the order of termination to the appropriate authority. In case such a review application is received, then the competent reviewing authority shall decide the review application on merits without going into the question of limitation, if such a <sup>period of -</sup> limitation exists.

5. No order as to costs.
