Oral Judgement and Order

(Per Hon. Sri Justice M.G. Chaudhari, V.C.)

For the reasons separately recorded in the judgement delivered in the Court, the following final order has been passed :

We direct the respondents No.1 and 2 to grant study leave to the applicant to pursue his Ph.D Course at IVRI for the academic year 1996-97 and for that purpose to relieve him from his present post. This step, however shall be taken at the time when the course is about to commence.

We direct the Respondent No.3 to admit the applicant to 1996-97 Academic Course for Ph.D in Poultry Science for which he was already selected vide memo dated 30-8-1995 on the strength of his having passed the written examination and the interview and the selection on the basis of which the aforesaid memo was issued.

R-2, the Director General, ICAR may earnestly consider the difficulties as may possibly be faced by the Respondent No.1 after the applicant is granted study leave and relief owing to shortage of manpower and to take meaningful measures to remove those difficulties. Since, we are informed by the applicant that 1996-97 course will commence from 1st September, 1996, the said respondents will have sufficient time at their disposal to work out the modalities for meeting the situation as may arise due to the study leave being granted to the applicant for the 1996-97 course.
