2. The applicant in this OA was empanelled for the post of Skilled Artisan Electrical Department in the Carriage Repair Shop, Tirupathi on the basis of the written test held on 10.8.86 and interview conducted ^{from} on 23.9.86 to 27.9.86. The applicant belongs to SC community ~~candidates~~. The applicant was not appointed.

3. Aggrieved by the above the applicant has filed this OA praying for a direction to the respondents to appoint him as Skilled Artisan/Electrical in Carriage Repair Shop, Tirupathi.

4. A reply and ^{an} additional reply has been filed by the respondents. The respondents contend as follows :-

(a) The selection for the post of Skilled Artisan in the scale of Rs.950-1500 in Electrical Department of Carriage Repair Shop, Tirupathi was conducted in the year 1986 and the panel was published on 4.6.87. As per the rules in vogue the panel will be in operation for a period of one year unless it was extended in peculiar circumstances of the case. A copy of the relevant rule is enclosed as Annexure-1 to the OA. The panel was extended upto 3.6.89 and thereafter the panel had lapsed. Hence the OA is barred by laches and limitation.

(b) After due selection a panel of 145 candidates i.e. 126 candidates under non-reserved community and 19 under SC/ST reserved community was published on 4.6.87 to fill the vacancies in Electrical Department against direct recruitment quota. The panel was operated upto Sl.No. 83 under OC/Ex-service men, whereas in the reserved panel it was operated upto Sl.No.15 as per the availability of vacancies. As the panel had lapsed on 3.6.89 the panel was not operated thereafter. Thus 43 candidates under OC/Exservicemen quota and 4 candidates in the reserved community ^{were} are not appointed. The applicant is the last one in the panel for reserved community and ~~there are~~ 4 candidates above him ~~were~~ also not appointed. Hence the applicant is not treated discriminately. The percentage fixed for SC/ST candidates had been fulfilled. Hence the applicant has no case.

(c) The panel was prepared for 200 units. Initially the work shed anticipated production units. As the ~~work shed~~ could not be not fully operated. Here applicant has

The percentage fixed for SC/ST candidates had been fulfilled. Hence the applicant has no case.

(c) The panel was prepared for repairing of about 200 units. Initially the work shop was designed for 70 units. As the ^{anticipated production} ~~work~~ could not be achieved the panel was not fully operated. Hence some of the OC and SC candidates empanelled in the select list ~~were~~ not appointed. Hence the applicant has no case.

5. The learned counsel for the applicant submits that once the number of vacancies has been indicated in the notification then there is no reason for not appointing all the candidates as per the notification. The notification has been issued for about 150 vacancies; hence there is no justification in not appointing the applicant as he had qualified in the selection and was empanelled for the post.

6. It is a settled law that an empanelled candidate has no right for absorption as held by the Supreme Court. No doubt the applicant had been empanelled. If his case has not been considered for empanelment probably the applicant has got some case. But in the present case the case of the applicant was considered and he was empanelled. But he has no right to demand appointment if there are no vacancies due to some reason or the other.

7. The respondents had clearly stated that the panel was formed for repairing of 200 units. But since the number of units to be repaired has not been achieved they were forced to curtail ^{the} number of candidates to be recruited for the skilled artisan in the electrical department. The above explanation is apt. The future vacancies that may arise as per the repairing programme the select list was issued with that target in mind. But that target could not be achieved due to some unforeseen reason. Hence the selected candidates who were not appointed cannot demand as a matter of right for appointing them even if the target is not achieved. The applicant is not discriminated as 46 OC candidates and 4 SC candidates who ^{were} ~~are~~ senior to him in the select list were not appointed due to the reduction in the units to be repaired.

The panel was issued on 4.6.87. It is not understood why the applicant has not approached the Tribunal if he was not appointed within a reasonable period after the issue of the panel. The respondents extended the currency of the panel ~~also~~ upto 3.6.89 more than a year after the issue of the panel. The applicant did not challenge the full operation of panel even after a considerable period. He came to this Tribunal only after 6 years. Hence when the respondents submit that this application has to be dismissed on account of delay and latches that appears to be a reasonable ground.

8. In view of what is stated above we find no merit in this OA and the OA is dismissed accordingly. No costs.
