Judgement

Oral order (per Hon. Mr. H. Rajendra Prasad, Member(A))

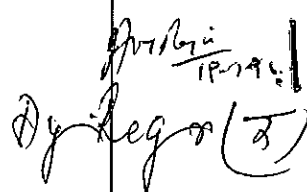

Heard Sri K.K. Chakravorthy for the applicant at great length. Heard Sri N.R. Devaraj for the respondents.

2. The applicant makes series of unsubstantiated allegations against the members of the Selection Committee. He carries an impression that Respondent-7 has been unduly favoured and that he has been deliberately discriminated against by the authorities. There is nothing to substantiate any of these allegations. All the concerned and connected proceedings and records were already seen once before (connected ~~with~~ OA.428/94) and ~~these~~ <sup>do</sup> not throw any new light on any of the points raised today.

3. The application is misconceived and is devoid of merits. It is, therefore, disallowed at the admission stage.
