OAs.597/96 and OASR.1624/96 are heard together since they pertain to the same cause of action and grievance.

Heard Sri Y Suryanarayana, Senior Counsel for the applicants ~~and~~ and Sri V. Rajeswara Rao, Standing Counsel for Central Govt. ~~xxxxRailways~~. Two officers of the respondents Department were also present when the case was taken up for hearing for admission.

The OA is admitted.

The respondents shall file their reply within four weeks. Sri Rajeswara Rao mentioned that he proposes to file counter-affidavit within two weeks. There is no objection to this. The Reply may be filed as proposed, and dualy served on the applicants. The matter may be mentioned by Additional Standing counsel for Central Government, for being taken up for further ~~hearing~~ orders, after counter affidavit is filed.

As an ad-interim measure it is directed that the position existing on 17-5-1996 in respect of the applicants (five in number) in these two OAs shall be maintained unaltered, until further orders. Sri Rajeswara Rao ^{at} this point submitted that the case be listed ^{early} ~~on 4-6-96~~ by which time he hopes to receive instructions and clarify the latest position.

The case, therefore, may be listed for further orders on 5.6.1996 (on the aspect of continuance of the interim direction only) if a specific request is made by Addl. Standing counsel in this regard, ~~on 5-6-96~~.
