Judgement

Oral order (per Hon. Mr. Justice M.G. Chaudhari, VC)

Mr. D. Dhilleswara Rao for the applicant. Mr. C.V. Malla Reddy for the respondents.

1. We are not happy over the attitude of the respondents towards resolving the grievance of the applicant who is a retired person. The delay in finalising pensionary benefits is undesirable.

2. By the order in OA, dated 17-7-96, the applicant was advised to file a detailed representation to Respondent-1 and on such representation being filed, Respondent-1 was directed to dispose it of within a period of two months. What the applicant did was submitted a representation on 22-7-96 which, however, had been prepared and signed on 15-7-96 i.e. before the order in the OA was passed. The applicant did not submit the said representation in tune with the direction given in the order. The matter was further compounded by the applicant by sending instead thereof a legal notice on 3-8-96 in pursuance of the liberty given in the order in the OA. Giving a legal notice was not contemplated by the order. It appears ~~that~~ from what Mr. Malla Reddy has submitted, Respondent-1 was not able to treat the legal notice as a representation in pursuance of the direction given in the OA and thus there was no order passed.

3. We think that both the parties have not dealt with the matter in a proper way. The applicant should have filed a proper representation which he has not done. The Respondent-1 on the other hand should have disposed of the representation received on 22-7-96 togetherwith the legal notice dated 3-8-96 and conveyed the decision to the applicant.

4. In the circumstances the following order is passed:

The Respondent-1 in the OA i.e. General Manager, SE, Railway, Calcutta, is hereby directed to treat the representation submitted on 22-7-96 and the content of the legal notice dated 3-8-96 to the extent that this relate to the applicants contentions as the representation deemed to be filed ~~under~~ order in the OA and dispose it of on merits within a period of three weeks peremptorily from the date of receipt of copy of this order and communicate the decision immediately to the applicant. In the event of being aggrieved with the said decision, the applicant will be at liberty to adopt such proceeding, as he may be advised in accordance with law.

5. Subject to above direction the CP is disposed of.
