2. The applicant was originally appointed as casual labourer in 1988 and granted temporary status in 1994. According to his statement his name found place at Sl.No.27 among the list of casual labourers who were accorded temporary status. His services were dispensed with in June, 1994, on the ground that he had not been originally engaged through employment exchange.
3. The grievance of the applicant in the present application is that some of the temporary status casual labourers who were similarly recruited have since been re-engaged by the respondents.
4. The learned counsel for the applicant produces a copy of a representation addressed to Respondent No.1. He further states that the said representation has been sent by registered post. If this is true, and if the representation is received by the respondents, the same will be disposed of within a reasonable time by a suitable decision on the basis of such legal precedents and directions as may be relevant to his case. This may be done within a reasonable time, which, in my view, is 60 days from the date of receipt by the Respondent No.1 of the representation which is stated to have been submitted by the applicant.
5. The OA may be numbered and treated as disposed of thus.
No costs.
