2. Though the respondents have not filed the reply they have produced the proceedings to show that the disciplinary authority ^{has} ordered further enquiry into the matter.

3. While the applicant was working as Senior Chargeman (Factory) a major penalty charge memo dated 11.11.88 (A-1) was issued to the applicant by the General Manager. A detailed enquiry was conducted into the charge and enquiry officer submitted his report recording his findings. After going through the report of the enquiry officer and the records ^{the} Chief Staff Officer (P&A) by his order dated 7.10.96 ordered for further enquiry with certain directions. The order of the Chief Staff Officer (P&A) is at pages 35-36.

4. On the basis of the said order the General Manager issued direction ^{by the impugned letter dt. 20.11.96} to the enquiry officer to further enquire into the charges levelled against the applicant.

5. This OA is filed challenging the letter dated 20.11.96 as arbitrary, illegal, null and void and consequently ^{to} quash the same.

6. The General Manager is the disciplinary authority. It is for him to take a decision on the basis of the report of the enquiry submitted by the enquiry officer. He must act on his own and not to be guided by any other ^{authority.} The Chief Staff Officer cannot motivate the disciplinary authority to order for further enquiry. It is the disciplinary authority to take his own decision on the basis of the findings recorded by the enquiry officer.

5. In that view of the matter the order dated 7.10.96 passed by the Chief Staff Officer (P&A) and there upon by the General Manager ordering further enquiry ^{by the impugned letter dated 20.11.96} are not according to the rules. Hence they are hereby set aside.

6. The disciplinary authority shall take decision on his own on the basis of the report of the enquiry submitted by the enquiry officer.

7. It is stated that nearly 3 years have elapsed from the date of submission of the report of the enquiry officer. The disciplinary authority shall furnish a copy of the enquiry report to the applicant and on the receipt of his representation may ^{he} pass such orders as ^{he} deems fit.

8. The OA is ^{thus} disposed of . No costs.
