Judgement

Oral order (per Hon. Mr. H. Rajendra Prasad, Member (Admn))

Heard Sri N.R. Devaraj, senior Standing Counsel, and Sri P. Radhakrishna Murthy, learned counsel for the applicant.

1. This OA is filed questioning the transfer of the applicant from Ramagundam to Zaheerabad. That was the basic issue and several other complaints were thereafter added to the main grievance. It was maintained by the applicant all through the earlier hearings that he has not joined at Zaheerabad pursuant to the impugned order.

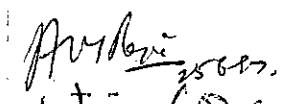

2. It is now revealed by Sri N.R. Devaraj, that the applicant has chosen to carry out the order of transfer and has not merely joined at Zaheerabad but has been working there for some time. Such being the case the OA itself becomes infructuous and other aspects which were added as grievances arising from the impugned transfer have lost their relevance and validity.

3. Mr. N.R. Devaraj submitted that the conduct of the applicant during the progress of this OA has not been creditable, generally, and that he was in fact trying to mislead this Court on several counts. He also appears to have wrongly briefed his own counsel on facts. This kind of misdemeanour is not appreciated. The applicant is cautioned against repetition.

4. The OA is thus disposed of without any direction since the same has become infructuous.
