Mr.K.Venkateswara Rao, learned counsel for the applicant and Mr.V.Vinod Kumar, learned standing counsel for the respondents.

2. The applicant was engaged on casual basis from 16.9.93 until his services were dispensed with from 31.7.97. A scheme for conferment of temporary status and regularisation of casual labourers came into effect from 1.9.93 and was made applicable to such of the casual labourers who were in employment on the date of the issue of the said scheme. The present applicant was not in employment on that date having been engaged a fortnight later. He is, therefore, not eligible for temporary status or regularisation in terms of the provisions of the scheme.

3. - The applicant now merely prays for reengagement considering his past part-time service ~~of~~ nearly 4 years during which he ^{ought, therefore, to} worked conscientiously and dutifully. The respondents ~~prefer~~ him to any other fresh face from the open market, whenever work on part-time basis becomes available hereafter. This is a reasonable request.

4. The respondents should, therefore, consider ~~engaging~~ him whenever work becomes available and if, in the normal course, he becomes eligible for any further service benefits in terms of any future scheme, the same may be considered in accordance with rules.

5. Thus, the OA is disposed of. No costs.
