JUDGMENT.

(as per Hon'ble Shri N. Rangarajan, Member (A))

The applicant is a Driver "C". He filed O.A.No. 1081/95 on the file of this Bench which was decided on ~~22-2-96~~ 21-3-1996. As per the directions in that O.A., the applicant was directed to attend the Railway Hospital at B&zwada for special Medical test with G.M. 3. It is stated that the applicant ~~fail~~ failed in that Medical Test conducted in pursuance of the direction in O.A.1081/95. In the meantime by the Order dated 15--10--1996 in O.A.No.1224/96 this Tribunal had directed the applicant to appear for the screening test without his prejudice to challenge ~~the~~ substantially the action of the respondents if it adversely affects him. However, this direction is not very material in this case. The applicant applied for re-medical examination by his representation dated 19--11--1986 (Annexure ~~III~~ III to the O.A.) and followed ^{it up} by Annexure IV dated 17-3-1997 to the O.A., by way of a reminder. It is stated that his case has been referred to the Headquarters Hospital for re-medical examination and the applicant submits that no action has been taken for re-medical examination. The applicant states that the date of re-medical examination was intimated to him ^{later} ~~later~~ after the date of re-medical examination ^{had} ~~was~~ expired. Hence, ~~he~~ submits that he could not attend the re-medical examination.

This O.A., is filed for a direction to the respondents to order for re-medical examination of the applicant.

The learned counsel for the respondents submits that the applicant is evading to appear for the re-medical examination, even though he was informed about it. In case, he received intimation for re-medical examination late, he should have approached the Authorities ~~as~~ ^{for} requesting them to fix a suitable date instead of rushing to this Tribunal. The learned counsel for the respondents, however, states that the applicant did not ~~though~~ ² attend the screening test. The learned counsel for the respondents states, that though the applicant did not appear for the screening test, he was offered Group "D" post which he refused to accept even though it is not material for consideration in this O.A.

In the above circumstances, the following direction is given:

"The 2nd respondent is directed to fix a suitable date for ^{re-medical} examination of the applicant and inform the applicant at least ten days ahead of that date."

With the above direction, the O.A., is disposed of at the admission stage itself.

No costs.
