ORDER

(per Hon'ble Shri H. Rajendra Prasad, Member (A))

Heard Shri C. Suryanarayana for the Applicant and none for the Respondents.

From the Counter affidavit filed by the Respondents nothing is clear as regards the facts of the case. The Counter affidavit is a very generalised statement and summing up of various judgements, fragments from which have been quoted without any apparent sequence or conclusion. There is not a single comment about this Applicant or his claim. This cannot be accepted.

The retrenchment order is hereby quashed. It is mentioned that the Applicant has been reengaged, pursuant to the observations contained in the order dated 23.5.97. He shall continue to be so engaged. As regards the question of temporary status, followed by regularisation, this aspect has been recently dealt with by this Bench in a number cases of similar nature, e.g., OA No. 1258/97. It is for the Department to take a basic decision as to what exactly is to be done in respect of those casual mazdoors who are :

- (a) engaged by field units in contravention of the instructions issued by their superiors; and
- (b) who are continuing to be engaged for miscellaneous works.

Thus the O.A. is disposed of with a direction that the case of the Applicant for a temporary status shall be considered at an appropriate time, when certain basic decisions, as required in all cases of this type, are taken by the Department in the light of our observations in O.A. 1258/97.

Thus the O.A. is disposed of.
