2. The applicants in the O.A.<sup>have</sup> filed this R.A. The affidavit is only a half page affidavit bringing out no error on the face of the judgement. It is only stated that as the date of hearing was not correctly noted, arguments could not be submitted on behalf of the petitioners and the grounds mentioned in the Review Application separately be taken as part of this affidavit. There is no Review Application indicating error on the face of the judgement. The reasons for disposing of the O.A. under Rule 15(2) has been clearly indicated in para-1 of the judgement. It has been clearly stated that on that day neither the applicants nor the counsels were present when the OAs had come up for hearing. Number of times this case was listed and on all the occasions neither the counsel nor the applicants were present. When the MASR 1977/98 in OA 145/97 was disposed of on 2.2.1999 then also neither the applicant nor his counsel was present. When the counsel or the applicants themselves <sup>were</sup> ~~are~~ repeatedly absent when the matter was listed, it cannot be said that the applicants were not heard.
