(Order per Hon'ble Shri H. Rajendra Prasad, Member (A))

Heard Shri Y. Appala Raju for the Respondent and Ms Shyama for Shri K. Ramulu for the Applicant.

The judgement under review was based on the orders passed in O.A. 1283/95 disposed of on 17.4.96. The said judgement in O.A. 1283/95 was neither appealed against nor was any review thereof sought. The orders passed in the said OA have, therefore, acquired finality.

The present R.A relies on three points which are stated to have not been considered in the judgement under Review. This is not a valid position to take for seeking a review, since the earlier judgement has already acquired finality, <sup>specifically because</sup> and also because the judgement in OA 1283/95 had duly and elaborately dealt with and covered all the points in detail.

The R.A. is misconceived and the same is, therefore, dismissed. The directions issued in the original judgement shall now be implemented within 30 days from today.
