Judgement

Oral order (per Hon. Mr. H. Rajendra Prasad, Member (Admn.))

Heard Sri V. Venkateswara Rao for the applicant. Mr. K. Ramulu, to whom this case is allotted, is not present.

1. The facts of the present OA are squarely covered by those contained in OA.777/96 disposed of on 18-6-1996 wherein the entire position regarding the problem of Casual Labourers, and confirmment of temporary status on them, followed by regularisation of their services, has been discussed in detail in the light of the provisions of the relevant scheme. The directions issued in the said OA is therefore to be applicable to this case as well. Hence, the following order :

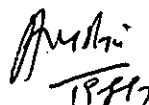

It will be open to the applicant to file a representation to the respondents for the relief provided that he has been physically working as on the date of filing of this application, and provided also that such a representation is submitted within four weeks from today. The respondents shall examine the matter and take a decision as to whether the applicant can be given the reliefs under the said schemes. In case the representation is rejected eventually the reasons for rejection has to be stated expeditiously and communicated to the applicant. This may be done within two months from the date of receipt of such representation in the Office of Respondent-5. In the meanwhile the applicant shall be continued to be engaged as before.

2. In case the applicant comes to entertain any grievance against the decision conveyed to him he shall have the liberty to re-agitate his grievance.
