3. The grievance of the applicant in the present O.A. is that her claim has been ^{unjustly} overlooked despite the fact that she is best suited [^] for the post and ^{that} the respondents have unduly favoured Respondent No.4 on extraneous considerations in spite of the fact that the selected candidate does not possess adequate qualifications nor regular source of income, nor does she have any property in her name.

4. Pursuant to our direction dated 4.2.97 the official respondents have produced the relevant record which is perused and returned. After careful scrutiny of the material placed before us by Shri N.P. Muthyalappa, Supdt. of Post Offices, Nandyal Division, we are of the view that the allegations and doubts expressed by the applicant are unfounded in-as-much as the selected candidate possesses adequate property and has a regular source of income. More importantly, ^{scored} she has ~~got~~ 408 marks in the S.S.C. examination whereas the applicant has ^{secured} ~~got~~ 339 marks. Thus the selection of Respondent No.4 is not, ^{Therefore,} incorrect on any score. Incidentally, the fact that she belongs to S.C. community and has therefore been unduly favoured is not proved because she seems to have been selected on her own merit.

5. The O.A. therefore fails and is accordingly disposed of. No order as to costs.
