1. Particulars of the order against which the application is made

"This application is against the Impugned to appointment order, dated 17-2-1997 of the Respondent."

2. Jurisdiction of the Tribunal :

That the applicant declares that the subject matter of the order against which he wants redressal is within the jurisdiction of the Tribunal U/s. 14(1)(b)(ii) of the Administrative Tribunal Act of 1985.

3. Limitation :

The applicant further declares that the application is within the limitation period prescribed in Section 21(1)(a) of the Administrative Tribunals Act 1985.

4. Facts of the Case :

a) That the applicant respectfully submits that he is the native of Pallamarri village in Mahaboobnagar District
He passed S.S.C and is aged 34 years. He has own house, landed property and income from it. As such he is eligible to be appointed as an extra Departmental Branch Post Master, Pallamarri Mahaboobnagar.

b) That the applicant respectfully submits that there arose a vacancy of Extra Departmental Branch Post Master at Pallanarri village. The respondent issued notification called for applications for the post vide Memo No.B2-246 dated 31-8-95 (Annexure-I). The last date for submission of the application was 29-9-95. The applicant submitted the application in time on 26-9-95, along with the following requisite documents.

1. Education Qualification, S.S.C (Annexure-II)
2. Income Certificate (Annexure-III)
3. Certificate of ownership of House (Annexure-IV)

The applicant's father has 36 acres 28 cents of ancestral landed property in the village in which the applicant has Co-parcenary and so the land holding certificate of his father was submitted. Besides within the prescribed period his father gifted 7 acres 71 cents to the applicant on 22-9-1995 and copy of the Gift Deed was also submitted so that the respondent should not entertain any doubt about the property, qualification of the applicant. On 16-10-95 all the certificate were verified by the Sub-Divisional Inspector

c) That there were many more candidates applied for the post. The applicant was found most suitable among them and was provisionally appointed on 16-10-95 and since then he has been discharging his duties with utmost devotion and sincerity. He has also considerably improved the work of the Branch Office since assumption of charge. He was anxiously waiting for regularisation orders.

d) That it is further submitted that the respondent issued another notification on 26-8-1996 (Annexure VI) for filling the same post for which a notification was issued on 31-8-95. The said act of the respondent is highly irregular and ought to have been quashed in the present case the applicant is the most suitable and eligible candidate due to which he was provisionally appointed on 16-10-1995.

e) That it is further submitted that the 2nd respondent though he did not have the landed property as mentioned in the notification and as per the rules of the E.D.B.P.M. Though the 2nd respondent did not file any proof of landed property, the first respondent in clear violation of the rules for the appointment of EDBPM Extra Departmental Branch Post Master, has appointed the 2nd respondent. It is further submitted that the applicant has applied for the 1st and 2nd ~~respondent~~ notification i.e., Memo No.B2-246, dated 31-8-95 and B246, dated 26-8-96. When applicant has fulfilled all the condition the 1st respondent has appointed him on the provisional basis in the first instance, when the applicant could fulfilled all the conditions for the post of EDBPM whereas in the 2nd recruitment though the 2nd respondent could not fulfilled the condition was appointed illegally which is a clear violation of the rules of the recruitment.

f) It is respectfully submitted that simply for the reason that no regular appointment order has not been issued, the appointment of the applicant cannot be treated as provisional for the reason that he was one among those, who applied and was appointed only after verification of certificates, which implies that his suitability was accepted before appointing him. Even otherwise he was appointed in a retirement vacancy and there is no provision to make provisional appointment in retirement vacancy vide DGP and Ir.No.43-4/77-Pen, dated 23-2-79. The applicant's appointment is liable to be treated as regular, due to the time gap to the second notification. The first notification was dated 31-8-95. He was appointed on 16-10-95. There was no notification for eleven months, on 26-8-96 the second notification was issued, obtaining the services of the applicant for eleven months, clearly proves that he is suitable and qualified for the said post, now the said notification after 11 months in a colourable exercise of power, taking the advantage of the fact that the applicant's regular appointment was not issued for such a long time is best known to the respondent.

g) Therefore it is prayed that this Hon'ble Tribunal may be pleased to declare the action of the respondent No. 1 as illegal, arbitrary and unconstitutional in issuing the appointment order, dated 17-2-1997., in appointing the 2nd respondent in violation of the rules for the recruitment of EDBPM and direct the respondent No. 1 to regularise the appointment of the applicant without consequential benefits.

5. Details of the remedy Exhausted :

Since no appeal lies against the selection or appointment of Branch Post Master, there is no departmental remedy. The applicant has no other option than to approach this Hon'ble Tribunal. Hence this O.A.

6. Matters not previously filed or pending with any other Court :

The applicant further declares that he had not previously filed any application, writ or suit regarding the matter in respect of which this application has been made before any Court or any other authority or any other Bench of the Tribunal nor any such application, writ petition or suit is pending before any of them.

7. Relief(s) sought :

In view of the facts mentioned, the applicant prays for the following relief(s).

It is respectfully prayed that this Hon'ble Tribunal may be pleased to declare the action of the respondent No. 1 as illegal, arbitrary and unconstitutional in appointing the 2nd respondent vide order dated 17-2-1997 and direct the respondent No.1 to regularise the appointment of the applicant without consequential benefits.

8. Interim orders if any prayed for :

No interim direction is claimed under presence circumstances further it is prayed to post this for final hearing at an early date.

9. NOT APPLICABLE :

10. Particulars of the Bank Draft/Postal Order filed in respect of the application Fee :

Heard Mr.M.Tirumala Rao, learned counsel for the applicant and Mr.N.V.Raghava Reddy, learned counsel for the respondents.

2. The applicant is an unsuccessful candidate in the selection for the post of EDBPM, Pallamarri Village. He was earlier working as EDBPM on provisional basis in response^{to} to notification issued on 31-8-95. He was appointed as a provisional EDBPM from 16-10-95. While^{he was} working as EDBPM on provisional basis, a second notification was issued on 26-08-96. The applicant applied for the said post in response to the second notification. R-2 had also applied for the post in response to 2nd notification.

3. After verification of the particulars of the applicant and other candidates who responded to notification dt. 26-8-96. R-2 was selected and appointed as EDBPM of that post office on regular basis. The R-2 was appointed as such^{vide} order issued on 17-02-97.

4. The applicant has filed this OA challenging the selection and appointment of R-2.

5. The applicant mainly contended that R-1 could not have issued the 2nd notification dt.26-8-96. He further submitted that R-2 was not having any landed property as mentioned in the notification and R-2 was not qualified for the post.

6. The applicant cannot challenge the 2nd notification since he had submitted his candidature and participated in the process of selection. In view of the judgement of the Apex Court reported in 1995 (2) SLR 209 SC (Maden Lal Vs. State of J&K), the applicant cannot challenge the 2nd notification dated 26-8-96.

7. Hence the challenge to selection of R-2 only stands in this OA. The respondents have placed before us the selection proceedings. We perused the selection proceedings. The applicant has secured 255/600 marks in SSC whereas the selected candidate (R-2) has secured 340/600 marks in SSC. The selection proceedings clearly show that both of them had fulfilled all the conditions for selection to the said post. When everything being equal the criterion for selection of the candidate is merit which is decided on the basis of the marks obtained in the SSC Exam i.e., the minimum qualification required for the post of as EDBPM. The applicant had secured 255 marks in SSC whereas R-2 had secured 340 marks out of 600 in SSC Exam. Hence it has to be held that R-2 is more meritorious than the applicant.

8. The selection committee has made the correct selection and hence the selection of R-2 cannot be challenged. We find no other illegality or irregularity in selecting the R-2 for the post.

9. In view of ~~the~~ what is stated above, we find no merits in this OA. Hence the OA is dismissed. No costs.

(The selection proceedings are perused and returned back to the respondents)
