6. While fixing the pay of the applicant by memorandum No.G/1.11/CP dated 15-12-88 (Annexure-3) nowhere it is mentioned that he had been taken as a fresh entrant and his pay had been fixed in the pay scale of Rs.950-1500/- Thus the respondents have not conveyed their views in regard to the absence of the applicant from 15-12-80 to 12-12-88 either at the time of his posting him as Junior Clerk or while fixing his pay in that post. Thus it has to be held that the applicant was posted as Junior Clerk when medically found fit for that post. Hence at this juncture stating that he was taken as a fresh entrant in the year 1988 cannot be accepted.

7. In the case of employees removed from service and taken back as a fresh entrant this Tribunal had held the view that a fresh ~~entrant~~ ^{entry} is not in accordance with rules and hence the period which he served earlier to his removal should also be considered for purpose of counting the qualifying service at the time of retirement. Of course it was held by the Tribunal that the intervening period from the date of removal till he was ^{re} posted should be treated as dies non. The present case is ^{higher} ~~feeling~~ than the case of the removed employee taken back on duty and hence it is essential that the case also should be viewed in the proper prospective and a similar direction needs to be given as given in the case of removed employee later posted back to duty. The present case is also in a better pedestal as the applicant was not removed from service but discharged ^{by an} ~~due to~~ medical unfit case. When he was taken back after he was found fit medically for the post of Junior Clerk there is no reason to deny him the period earlier to his medical unfitness for purpose of counting the qualifying service. The learned counsel for the respondents himself admits that he will get pension for the earlier period. If that be so, there is no reason ~~mentioning~~ ^{for now} later period should with all consequential benefits and to set aside the proceedings No.G.P.500/IV/B-426 dated 18-8-94 (Annexure-?) whereby the break in between the two spells of service was refused by holding it as illegal, arbitrary and against the rules in force and in violation of Articles 14 and 16 of the Constitution.

4. A reply has been filed in this OA. The main contention of the respondents in this OA is that the applicant is eligible for payment of pension and pensionary benefits for the service he had rendered from the date of his appointment in the year 1954 till the date of his medical decategorisation ~~as~~ on 15-12-80. But the applicant did not take advantage of it and wants the services during the break also to be counted for purpose of fixing his pension and pensionary benefits. The applicant is not entitled for pension for the later part of the service i.e., from 12-12-88 to 31-7-93 as by that service ~~is~~ is not getting the qualifying service for purpose ~~as~~ of pension and pensionary benefits. The applicant cannot ask for regularisation of the period of his absence from 15-12-80 to 12-12-88 as the same is more than 5 years and hence condoning ~~as~~ period is not permissible.

5. Before we analyse this OA, it is necessary to see the working of memorandum when he was reengaged by order dated 8-12-88. This order states that the applicant was certified medically unfit to hold his present job i.e., the post of Mate ~~was~~ ^{as} absorbed in the alternative post/ Junior Clerk in the scale of pay of Rs.950-1500/-. From the word it is evident that the respondents at the time of his absorption in 1988 did not consider his second posting as a fresh posting. The order has to be read as if he was posted on being medically fit for the post of Junior Clerk. Hence we are not convinced with the reasons given for condoning the break in service from 15-12-80 to 12-12-88.

not be counted for the fixing the pension at the time of his retirement in the year 1993. In view of what is stated above, the following direction is given:-

The qualifying service of the applicant should be counted to 15-12-80 and the later service from 12-12-88 to 31-7-93 debarring the ineligible period in that spell for the purpose of ~~counting~~ the qualifying service. The period from 15-12-80 to 12-12-88 should be treated as ~~dis~~-non. The applicant is entitled for pension on the basis of the counting the qualifying service as directed above. The pension of the applicant should be fixed accordingly within a period of four months from the date of receipt of a copy of this order.

8. The OA is ordered accordingly. No costs.

3. The applicant in this OA is a compassionate ground appointee due to full medical invalidation of his father who worked as Gangman compassionate ground appointment. It is stated that he has

4. The applicant's father who had discharged from service due to full medical invalidation filed TA.296/86 on the file of this Bench. That was disposed of by order dt. 19.3.87 directing the respondents to assess his suitability and post him if he found suitable in alternate post. On the basis of that direction the suitability of the father of the applicant was assessed and he was posted as a Clerk on 8.12.88.

5. Now the notice G/P.241/I/Guards, dt. 9.10.97 (A-1) has been issued asking for his explanation why he should not be discharged from service as his father whose full medical invalidation resulted ^{ask} in his compassionate ground appointment is now ^{newly and} posted as a regular employee in the railways.

6. This OA is filed challenging that notice.

7. In the said notice we do not see any relevant rules/instruction under which such action can be taken in discharging from services a compassionate ground appointee. In the absence of any rules/ regulations the OA has to be considered ~~in fall and considered~~ ^{on merit} on merit.

8. In view of the above the balance of convenience lies with the applicant and hence the notice has to be suspended until further orders in this OA. Accordingly the impugned notice dt. 9.10.97 is kept suspended until further orders. The suspension of the order will not stand in the way of the applicant to file his explanation if any to the respondents.

The Applicant was appointed on compassionate grounds as Porter by Order No. G/P.564/CG/1977 d/23.9.78 (Annexure A-II Page 12 to the O.A.). The applicant thereafter progressed as Assistant Guard. The impugned Order No. G/P.214/I/Guards dated 9.10.1997 was issued after a lapse of about 19 years ~~asking him~~ proposing to terminate his services as his father was re-screened and found suitable for absorption and posted as Clerk in Sr.DEN/O/GTL on 12.12.1988. The Respondents' Organisation issued the proposed termination order asking the applicant compassionate ground to file his representation as his/employment was nullified because of the appointment of his father who was earlier discharged from service due to which the applicant was appointed on compassionate grounds.

This O.A. is filed to set aside the impugned order dated 9.10.1997 of the Respondent No.3 deciding to terminate the services of the applicant and calling for representation in this regard and to declare the same as arbitrary, illegal, unwarranted and for a consequential direction to the respondents to continue the applicant as Assistant Guard in the present post with all consequential benefits.

A show cause notice was issued on 9.10.1997 directing the applicant to file his representation, if any, against the proposed termination of his service. The applicant has not filed any representation to the respondents in this connection. Hence, passing an order by this Tribunal, in our opinion is not proper as the applicant should normally follow the channels/ remedies available to him for redressal of his grievances.

An interim order was passed in this O.A., on 28-10-1997 suspending the impugned notice dated 9.10.1997 until further orders. It is also noted in the interim order that the suspension order ^{would} ~~will~~ not stand in the way of the applicant to file his representation, if any, to the respondents in regard to the proposed termination of his services. It is brought to our notice, that ^{advice} no representation was ~~filed~~ to the respondents. Hence, we do not like to step into the jurisdiction of the respondents in disposing of the case without giving an opportunity to the respondents' organisation to decide the case of the applicant in accordance with law.

There appears to be a ground for resisting the impugned order dated 9.10.1997. The applicant submits that he was independently working as Casual Labour under P/W1/BG/GTL with effect from 23.1.1978 even before the accident ~~of~~ his father. The father of the applicant was discharged from service and because of that discharge, the applicant was appointed as Porter on compassionate grounds. Later his father was re-screened and appointed due to the Court Order. Whether that re-appointment of the father of the applicant will stand in the way of the applicant to continue him as a compassionate ground appointee / is a point for consideration. Normally, if any discharged employee has been re-engaged and the compassionate ground appointment was also made only a few years earlier to his re-engagement, then probably it may be appropriate to issue the orders proposing to terminate that compassionate ground appointment. But in this case the applicant was appointed in the year, 1978 i.e., ^{more than} two decades ago. His father was re-engaged in the year, 1988 and the show cause notice was issued in the years, 1997.

Hence, it looks the issuance of the impugned order dated 9.7.1997 may not be a proper order. But we do not want to finally dispose of the matter at this stage and we leave the matter for the respondents to decide it in accordance with law following the principles of natural justice.

The applicant should submit his representation one if he has already not submitted one within a period of 15 days from the date of receipt of a copy of this Order. If he had already submitted his representation to the respondents, a copy of the same should be sent to the respondents ~~from the~~ within the above stipulated period of 15 days. The respondents shall take an appropriate decision in this connection as indicated above within a period of three months from the date of receipt of a copy of this Judgment.

The interim orders passed in this O.A., on 28.10.1997 shall continue to be in force one month

respondents to the applicant.

directions. No costs.

AFFIDAVIT

I, D. Nageswara Rao, S/o.D.Balaraman, aged about 42 years, Occ: Asst. Guard, S.C.Railway, Guntakal, District Anantapur, do hereby solemnly and sincerely state on oath as follows :

1. That I am the deponent herein and the applicant in OA No.1430/97 and therefore well acquainted with the facts of the case.

2. I submit that I filed OA No.1430/97 aggrieved against the impugned notice No.G/P.214/Guards dated 9.10.1997 communicating the decision to terminate my services and thereby calling for my representation, inspite of my 20 years of service in Railways. The above OA was disposed of on 25.3.1999 with the following directions:

"There appears to be a ground for resisting the impugned order dated 9.10.1997. The applicant submits that he was independently working as Casual Labour under PW1/BG/GTL with effect from 23.1.1978 even before the accident to his father. The father of the applicant was discharged from service and because of that discharge,

D.Nageswara Rao

the applicant was appointed as Porter on compassionate grounds. Later his father was re-screened and appointed due to the Court Order. Whether that re-appointment of the father of the applicant will stand in the way of the applicant to continue him as a compassionate ground appointee is a point for consideration. Normally, if any discharged employee has been re-engaged, and the compassionate ground appointment was also made only a few years earlier to his re-engagement, then probably it may be appropriate to issue the orders proposing to terminate that compassionate ground appointment. But in this case the applicant was appointed in the year, 1978 i.e., more than two decades ago. His father was re-engaged in the year 1988 and the show cause notice was issued in the years, 1997. Hence, it looks that the issuance of the impugned order dated 9.7.1997 may not be a proper order. But we do not want to finally dispose of the matter at this stage and we leave the matter for the respondents to decide it in accordance with law following the principles of natural justice.

The applicant should submit his representation, if he has already not submitted one within a period of 15 days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order. If he had already submitted his representation to the respondents, a copy of the same should be sent to the respondents within the above stipulated period of 15 days. The respondents shall take an appropriate decision in this connection as indicated above within a period of three months from the date of receipt of a copy of this judgement.

Contd.....

CM

R. Jaggeswar Rao

The interim orders passed in this OA on 28.10.1997 shall continue to be in force one month after the communication of the final decision of the respondents to the applicant."

Based on the above directions I have made representation to R-3 on 19.9.1998 and 17.4.1999. But there is no response for both the representations. As such I have no other alternative except to approach this Hon'ble Tribunal seeking redressal of my grievance.

3. In the light of the above directions of this Hon'ble Tribunal, it is incumbent on the part of the respondent to act upon and to proceed in accordance with the law. But unfortunately respondents have not implemented the said judgement as it was intended to be implemented and did not act upon as directed by the Hon'ble Tribunal. This inaction on the part of the respondents is reprehensible, wanton and deliberate disobedience of the orders of this Hon'ble Tribunal and constitutes a grave and ex-facie contempt of court and the respondents are liable for the due punishment under the provisions of Contempt of Courts Act, 1971 read with section 17 of Central Administrative Tribunals Act, 1985. Non-compliance of the orders of the Hon'ble Tribunal by the respondents is deliberate, willful and malafide contempt of them, attracting passing of strictures against them for causing enormous financial loss and mental agony which situation needs to be taken cognizance of.

X S. Nagaswara Rao

Therefore, it is respectfully prayed that the Hon'ble Tribunal may be pleased to take cognizance of offence committed by the Respondents 1. The General Manager, S.C.Railway, (Rep. The Applicant was appointed on compassionate grounds as Porter by Order No. G/R.564/CG/1977 d/23.9.78 (Annexure A-II Page 12 to the C.O.). The applicant thereafter progressed as Assistant Guard. The impugned Order No. G/R.214/I/Guards dated 9.10.1997 was issued after a lapse of about 19 years ~~asking him~~ proposing to terminate his services as his father was re-screened and found suitable for absorption and posted as Clerk in Sr.DEN/0/GTL on 12.12.1988. The Respondents' Organisation issued the proposed termination order asking the applicant to file his representation as his/employment was nullified because of the appointment of his father who was earlier discharged from service due to which the applicant was appointed on compassionate grounds.

This C.A. is filed to set aside the impugned order dated 9.10.1997 of the Respondent No.3 deciding to terminate the services of the applicant and calling for representation in this regard and to declare the same as arbitrary, illegal, unwarranted and for a consequential direction to the respondents to continue the applicant as Assistant Guard in the present post with all consequential benefits.

A show cause notice was issued on 9.10.1997 directing the applicant to file his representation, if any, against the proposed termination of his service. The applicant has not filed any representation to the ground appointment /is a point for consideration. Normally, if any discharged employee has been re-engaged and the compassionate ground appointment was also made only a few years earlier to his re-engagement, then probably it may be appropriate to issue the orders proposing to terminate that compassionate ground appointment. But in this case the applicant was appointed in the year, 1970 ^{more than} i.e., two decades ago.

His father was re-engaged in the year, 1983 and the show cause notice was issued in the year's, 1997.
Hence, it looks ^{that} the issuance of the impugned order dated 9.7.1997 may not be a proper order. But we do not want to finally dispose of the matter at this stage and we leave the matter for the respondents to decide it in accordance with law following the principles of natural justice.

The applicant should submit his representation if he has already not submitted ^{an} within a period of 15 days from the date of receipt of a copy of this Order. If he had already submitted his representation to the respondents, a copy of the same should be sent to the respondents ~~except~~ within the above stipulated period of 15 days. The respondents shall take an appropriate decision in this connection as indicated above within a period of three months from the date of receipt of a copy of this Judgment.

respondents in this connection. Hence, passing an order by this Tribunal, in our opinion is not proper as the applicant should normally follow the channels/ remedies available to him for redressal of his grievances.

An interim order was passed in this case, on 28-10-1997 suspending the impugned notice dated 9.10.1997 until further orders. It is also noted in the interim order that the suspension order ^{would} not stand in the way of the applicant to file his representation, if any, to the respondents in regard to the proposed termination of his services. It is brought to our notice, that ^{adherence} no representation was ~~filed~~ to the respondents. Hence, we do not like to step into the jurisdiction of the respondents in disposing of the case without giving an opportunity to the respondents' organisation to decide the case of the applicant in accordance with law.

There appears to be a ground for resisting the impugned order dated 9.10.1997. The applicant submits that he was independently working as Casual Labour under PW 1/US/CTL with effect from 23.1.1978 even before the accident ~~of~~ his father. The father of the applicant was discharged from service and because of that discharge, the applicant was appointed as worker on compassionate grounds. Later his father was re-screened and appointed due to the Court Order. Whether that re-appointment of the father of the applicant will stand in the way of the applicant to continue him as a compassionate

Sir,

Sub:- Notice for Termination of service.

Ref:- 1) Sr.DPO/GTL Lr.No.G/P. 214/1/Guards,
dt. 9-10-97.

2) Interim orders of CAT/HYB, dt. 28-10-97
in O.A.No.1430/97.

3) Decision of CAT/HYB, dt. 25-3-99 in
O.A.No.1430/97.

The Hon'ble CAT/HYB had in their decision referred to under item (iii) of the reference cited above have observed vide pages 2 to 4 as under:-

This O.A. is filed to set aside the impugned order dated 9-10-1997 of the Respondent No.3 deciding to terminate the services of the applicant and calling for representation in this regard and to declare the same as arbitrary, illegal, unwarranted and for a consequential direction to the respondents to continue the applicant as Assistant Guard in the present post with all consequential benefits.

A show cause notice was issued on 9-10-1997 directing the applicant to file his representation, if any, against the proposed termination of his service. The applicant has not filed any representation to the respondents in this connection. Hence, passing an order by this Tribunal, in our opinion is not proper as the applicant should normally follow the channels/remedies available to him for redressal of his grievances.

An interim order was passed in this O.A., on 28-10-1997 suspending the impugned notice dated 9-10-1997 until further orders. It is also noted in the interim order that the suspension order would not stand in the way of the applicant to file his representation, if any, to the respondents in regard to the proposed termination of his services. It is brought to our notice, that no representation was addressed to the respondents. Hence, we do not like to step into the jurisdiction of the respondents in disposing of the case without giving an opportunity to the respondents' organisation to decide the case of the applicant in accordance with law.

There appears to be a ground for resisting the impugned Order dated 9-10-1997. The applicant submits that he was independently working as Casual Labour under PW.1/EG/CTL with effect from 23-1-1978 even before the accidents to his father. The father of the applicant was discharged from service and because of that discharge, the applicant was appointed as porter on compassionate grounds. Later his father was re-screened and appointed due to the Court order. Whether that re-appointment of the father of the applicant will stand in the way of the applicant to continue him as a compassionate ground appointee is a point for consideration. Normally, if any discharged employee has been re-engaged and the compassionate ground appointment was also made only a few years earlier to his re-engagement, then probably it may be appropriate to issue the orders proposing to terminate that compassionate ground appointment. But in this case the applicant was appointed in the year, 1978 i.e., more than two decades ago. His father was re-engaged in the year, 1988 and the show cause notice was issued in the years, 1997. Hence, it looks that the issuance of the impugned order dated 9-7-1997 may not be a proper order. But we do not want to finally dispose of the matter at this stage and we leave the matter for the respondents to decide it in accordance with law following the principles of natural justice.

The applicant should submit his representation, if he has already not submitted one within a period of 15 days from the receipt of a copy of this order. If he had already submitted his representation to the respondents, a copy of the same should be sent to the respondents within the above stipulated period of 15 days. The respondents shall take an appropriate decision in this connection as indicated above within a period of three months from the date of receipt of a copy of this Judgement.

I am afraid that the fact of my case had not been correctly brought to the notice of the Hon'ble CAT/HYB.

► In fact, in response to the notice of termination of service No.G/P.214/I/Guards dt.9-10-97 issued by the Sr.DPO/ I have promptly submitted my representation dt.17-10-97 through proper channel.

It would not, therefore, be correct to say that I have failed to submit my representation to the notice of termination.

As directed by the Hon'ble CAT/HYB, a copy of my representation dt.17-10-97 in reply to Notice of termination is submitted herewith.

Before finalizing my case, I would like to invite your kind attention to the fact that the question of termination of my service was proposed earlier and the same was withdrawn by the competent authority, the Guntakal Divisional Railway Administration had committed as under in their reply statement (counter) in case C.C.No.4/88 of 1988, dt.21-7-88.

"The respondent regrets very much on behalf of his predecessor for the inadvertent wrong step taken by him in advising the petitioner in this office letter No.G/P.Con/Vol.VII of 29-2-88 (copy enclosed) that his case for absorption in an alternative job can be considered only on receipt of the declassification from the petitioner and his son that the services of his son who was appointed on compassionate grounds are terminable at this juncture. The competent authority has reviewed the above action and directed the respondent to advise the petitioner to treat the contents of this office letter of even No. dated 29-2-88 as "Cancelled" and that the name of the Petitioner will be continued to be kept in the waiting list till 31-12-88 as a special case so as to make every effort to provide the petitioner alternative job, recommended by the screening committee before that date, even though no provision exists under Rules to continue the name of a medically declassified employees in the waiting list for absorption in alternative job for more than six months leave on loss of pay granted to him, subject to absorption in an alternative post. Accordingly, the petitioner was advised vide this office letter No.G/P.11/Con/Vol.VII of 25-4-88".

In view of the above commitment to the Hon'ble CAT/HYB in C.C. No.4/88 of 1980, dt.21-7-88, which was not brought to the notice of the Hon'ble CAT by my Counsel, I request that my case may please be dispassionately dealt with and the proposed notice of termination of service issued against me withdrawn.

Thanking you,

Yours faithfully,
