in the payment of monthly salary.

4. The main contention of the applicants in this OA is that they fulfill the conditions laid down in the memorandum dt. 10-9-93 for bringing them on temporary status from the date of issue of that memorandum.

5. A reply has been filed by the respondents. The main contention of the respondents in denying them the temporary status is due to the fact that the above scheme was amended by office memorandum No.49014/2/93-Estt.(C) dt.12-7-94 (Annexure R-1 to the counter). As per / ^{amended} memorandum the temporary status can be ^{only} granted/to those who were engaged on being sponsored by the Employment Exchange. As the applicants / ^{were} not sponsored by the employment Exchange, they are not eligible for grant of temporary status under the scheme dt.10-9-93. The second contention of the respondents is that the applicant cannot rely on the judgement dt.30-6-94 in OA 697/91 as the applicants are not parties to that OA. Hence they cannot be given the relief as granted in the judgement in OA.697/91. The various contentions were analysed as below :-

The office memorandum dt.10-9-93 clearly stipulates the condition for granting temporary status to casual labourers. It is an admitted fact that the applicants were engaged as Casual and are day continuously till Labours/working 8 hours per/now. Sub para (i) of para-4 of memorandum dt.10-9-93 indicates the conditions for granting temporary status to the casual labourers working for 8 hours per day. This para is reproduced below :-

4. Temporary Status

(i) Temporary status would be conferred

on all casual labourers who are in employment on the date of issue of this memorandum and who have rendered a continuous service of at least one year which means that they must have been engaged for a period of at least 240 days (206 days in the case of offices observing 5 day week).

In terms of the above para, the casual labourers should be in service on 1-9-93, the date on which the scheme came into force and the casual labourers should have been engaged for a period of 240 days to grant them temporary status. The applicants in this DA were engaged in 1990 and 1989 respectively and it is an admitted fact that they are working continuously from that date. Hence there is no doubt that the applicants had worked for 240 days earlier to the introduction of scheme with effect from 1-9-93. It is also an admitted fact that both the applicants were in service on 1-9-93. Hence the applicants complied with the conditions fully and are eligible for grant of temporary status.

7. The only reason given for not granting temporary status is that they were not engaged on being sponsored by the Employment Exchange. As the subsequent amendment by office memorandum dt.12-7-94 stipulates that the temporary status can be granted only to those sponsored by the Employment Exchange, the applicants were denied the grant of temporary status. The learned counsel for the respondents submit that the memorandum dt.12-7-94 should be read in conjunction with earlier memorandum dt.10-9-93 by which the scheme was introduced. This contention is not a very valid one. By reading the later memorandum dt.12-7-94 along with memorandum dt.10-9-93, the vested right accrued to them is taken away without any justification. Such a denial of the rights already accrued by a later memorandum is to be struck down as arbitrary of constitutional rights under Article 14 and hence ...5.

the later memorandum cannot be given retrospective effect (authority 1989 (9) AIC 773 - Haribans Misra & others Vs.

Railway Board & Others and AIR 1964 SC 1511 - Mst. Rafiquennesa and others Vs. Lal Bahadur Chetri & Others). This amendment came into effect only from the date of issue of the memorandum..

B. The learned counsel for the respondents brought to my notice para-11 of the memorandum dt.10-9-93 wherein it is stated that "Department of Personnel & Training will have powers to make amendments or relax any of the provisions in the scheme that may be considered necessary, from time to time". In view of the above provisions in the memorandum dt.10-9-93, the respondents can amend the earlier memo by a later memo giving retrospective effect to the later memo from the date of issue of first memorandum. The above quoted provisions in the memorandum dt.10-9-93 does not state that the later amendments if any will come into force from the initial date of introduction of the scheme. It merely says that the Department of Personnel & Training have powers to amend the provisions of the scheme dt.10-9-93. I have no doubt about the powers of the Department of Personnel & Training to modify the scheme to suit the needs. However as observed earlier that such amendments will have only prospective effect and in no way permit the respondents to give retrospective effect.
Hence the contention that due to 1994 amendment the benefit of the scheme dt.10-9-93 cannot be extended to the applicants has to be rejected. As the applicants were in service as on 1-9-93 and fulfilled the conditions for grant of temporary status as on that crucial date, they should be brought on temporary status irrespective of the fact whether any amendment was made later to the issue of the initial memorandum of the scheme. Such amendments will have only prospective effect.

9. The applicants relying on the judgement of this Tribunal in OA 697/91 submit that the applicants in that OA are juniors to the present applicants. Hence it will be incongruous if the juniors were given temporary status and seniors were not given the same. The applicants in OA 697/91 were given temporary status in view of the directions in that OA by this Tribunal and that cannot be quoted as a ground for getting the relief for the applicants herein. In the above referred OA 697/91 there is no analysis in regard to the implication of OM dt.12-7-94. In any case even without relying on the judgement, the applicants are entitled to get the relief as prayed for in this OA in view of what is stated above.

10. The learned counsel for the applicants also relies on the judgement of Calcutta Bench of this Tribunal in OA 909/90 and OA 910/90 dt.30-1-95 (Ramnath Paswan & another Vs. Union of India) to state that even if the applicants are not engaged after being sponsored by the Employment Exchange, they are entitled for the regularisation. I do not want to comment on this as the eligibility of the applicants to get temporary status has already been taken in view of the rule position.

11. The applicants also submit that in view of the Apex Court ruling in Pyara Sing's case, they are entitled for grant of temporary status. I do not consider it necessary to go into this contention as the applicants are entitled for grant of temporary status even under departmental instructions.

12. In view of what is stated above, (i) the OA is allowed and the applicants should be granted temporary status with effect from 1-9-93 (ii) the consequential benefits arising out of that status should also be given to the applicants within a period of 3 months from the date of receipt of a copy of this order.

13. O.A. is ordered accordingly. No costs.

and Sri V.Rajeshwar Rao, standing counsel for the respondents.

2. The applicant in this OA was initially engaged as a daily rated casual worker for performing duties of Sweeper in Donthapalli Range Division-VII of the Central Excise Department at Hyderabad on 18-7-91 at Rs.8/- per day. The fact that the applicant was working from 18-7-91 as full time casual labourer is evident from the letter dt.19-12-97 (Annexure A-1 to OA). The applicant filed representation requesting for grant of temporary status by his letter dt.14-6-96, which was rejected by the impugned order No.C/11/31/17/95-ES-5 dt.27-9-96 (Annexure-5 to the OA).

3. This O.A. is filed praying for a direction to set aside the impugned letter dt.27-9-96 and consequently to grant him the temporary status with effect from 1-9-93, the date when the casual labourers (Temporary Status & Regularisation) Scheme came into force.

4. It is an admitted fact that the applicant is a full time casual labourer. The contentions of both sides and the prayer in this OA are similar to the one submitted in OA 404/96. In view of the reasons given in OA 404/96, which is disposed of today, ^{is} ~~In view of reasons given in OA 404/96~~ this O.A. is also to be allowed for the same reasons.

Ministry of Personnel, Public Grievances and Pensions (Department of Personnel and Training)

New Delhi, the 12th July, 94.

OFFICE MEMORANDUM

No. 99

Subject: Grant of temporary status and regularisation of casual workers.

The undersigned is directed to refer to Department of Personnel & Training OM No. 51016/2/90-Estt(O), dated 10th Sept. 93 on the subject noted above and to say that many representations have been received from various Ministries/Departments seeking clarification on certain points relating to grant of temporary status to casual labourers. In view of the above, clarifications in respect of the points raised in the references are given below:-

3. No. Points raised

Clarifications

1. Whether the casual employees who were not initially engaged through employment exchange are entitled to the benefit of temporary status.
Since it is mandatory to engage casual employees through employment exchange, the appointment of casual employees without employment exchange is irregular. Hence such casual employees cannot be benefited with temporary status.
2. Whether temporary status could be granted to the part-time casual employees.
No.
3. Will the casual labourers initially engaged after exceeding the upper age limit prescribed for recruitment to Group 'D' posts be eligible for grant of temporary status?
No age limit has been prescribed for grant of temporary status. However, for the purpose of subsequent regularisation, the conditions regarding age and educational qualifications prescribed in the relevant recruitment rules will apply.
4. Will the wages of casual employees would on grant of temporary status be debited to the Salaries sub-head of the establishment or to the contingent sub-head?
Since the casual employees would be entitled for wages on actual basis, their wages will have to be debited to the sub-head wages.

33
Since the facility of paid weekly off is admissible after 6 days of continuous work, this would not be admissible to casual employees working for 5 days in a week.

For the purpose of assessing leave entitlement how should qualifying period be reckoned?

Qualifying period should be reckoned with reference to actual number of days duty performed ignoring days of weekly off, leave and absence etc. All days of duty will be counted irrespective of intervening spells of absence, which do not constitute break in service.

7. Frequency at which leave will be credited.

Twice a year, on the 1st January and 1st of July credit will be afforded for the preceding half year or fraction thereof, on a pro-rata basis at the rate of one day for every 10 days of work.

day excluding Sundays and holidays. The Govt. Of India through the Department of Personnel and Training formulated a scheme known as "Casual laborers (grant of temporary status and regularization) Scheme 1993" by which "Temporary Status" is required to be conferred on all casual laborers who are employed as on 1-9-93 and rendered continuous service of one year (206 days in the case of offices observing five days a week). Though I have fulfilled the criteria laid down in the said scheme I was not granted Temporary status resulting in filing of OA No.1453 of 1997 in this Hon'ble Tribunal.

4. This Hon'ble Tribunal was pleased to hear the matter on 31-10-97 and issued directions, the operative portion of which is as under (Annexure A1).

"This issue has been examined in some earlier cases and certain directions have been issued. The applicant (Annexure 5 to 7) has cited three such cases. There are no new questions or issues to be examined afresh. The respondents are directed to scrutinize the claim of the applicant in terms of the provision of relevant scheme and take a suitable decision within 90 days from the date of receipt of copy of this order".

4. I submit that in respect of the three matters (Annexures 5 to 7) namely O.A No 404/96 OA 1313/96 & OA 991/, as also in another four similar cases, the Respondent (1) granted "Temporary Status" to the casual labour mentioned therein with effect from 1-9-93 as could be seen from establishment Order (NGO) No.21 of 97 dated 13-9-97 issued by the office of the Commissioner(1) Customs And Central Excise (Annexure A2). It is also understood that in all these matters the arrears of pay from 1-9-93 have been also distributed to all the nine applicants therein.

6. I Submit that inspite of passage of more than seven months from the time of receipt of the Orders of this Hon'ble Tribunal, as against a time frame of 90 days, fixed by the Tribunal, the Respondents discriminated and deliberately did not grant "Temporary Status" to me causing monetary loss and deprivation of basic necessities of life. I also got issued a legal Notice on 24-3-98 requesting the Respondents to comply with the directions of this Hon'ble Tribunal but of no avail. Hence I am left with no other effective alternative for obtaining compliance of the directions dated 31-10-97 of this Hon'ble Tribunal by the 1st respondent than to invoke the jurisdiction of this Hon'ble Tribunal under section 17 of the Administration Tribunal Act, 1985.

7. I therefore pray that in view of the facts mentioned above this Hon'ble Tribunal may be pleased to take cognizance of the offence committed by the Commissioner (1) Central Excise Customs, Hyderabad in respect of the directions dated 31-10-97 of this Hon'ble Tribunal in OA No. 1453 of 1997 and direct him to appear before this Hon'ble Tribunal and may be pleased to pass such other order or orders as this Hon'ble Tribunal may deem fit and proper in the interest of justice.
