requests for appointing him in the railways as was done in the case of other Catering Cleaners.

3. This OA is <sup>praying</sup> filed for a direction to the respondents to engage and continue the applicant as Catering Cleaner and absorb him as <sup>a</sup> departmental employee duly regularising his service with all consequential benefits that are available to regular employees. If there are no vacancies the applicant may <sup>be</sup> continued in Catering staff in the temporary status till the ~~vacancy~~ in the regular vacancy arises.

4. The applicant has submitted a representation in this connection dated 6.10.96 (A-7). It is stated that the said representation is still to be disposed of.

5. In view of the above the OA is disposed of directing ~~the~~ R-5 to dispose of the representation dated 6.10.96 in accordance with the law following the earlier judgements, if any, given in this connection.

6. With the above direction, the OA is disposed of at the admission stage itself. No costs.
