2. There are five applicants in this OA. They were engaged as casual labourers to work in the Military Diary Farm as Farm Hands in different years commencing from 1-8-1988 to 1-1-1991. The applicants submit that this general procedure which is followed in regularising the casual labourers is that, after completing 240 days, the persons working as casual labourers become eligible to be appointment<sup>ed</sup> as Group-'D' staff and a Provisional Selection Order is to be issued to the said effect in the initial pay of Rs.750/- in the pay scale of Rs.750-940 Plus usual allowances. It is also submission of the applicants that a Committee consisting of Gazetted Officer is formed as Chairman, who would send the eligible persons for appointment as mentioned above and their cases will be considered after sending call letters to the eligible candidates as per recommendations. They are then interviewed and a select panel is displayed. In the year 1991, the then Officer-Incharge, Military Farm, Secunderabad, sent a letter to the Employment Exchange, Ranga Reddy District i.e., on 30-4-1991, projecting to fill about 60 posts of Farm Hands which actually never existed as on that date. The Employment Exchange in turn sent about 85 names which included about 13 names of casual Farm Hands, who <sup>we-</sup>are juniors to about 50 <sup>casual labourers</sup> applicants, who <sup>we-</sup>are working since 1988 as casual Farm Hands. The applicants submit that, inspite of several representations, no action has been taken to rectify the mistake then.

3. By Proceedings No.080308/E/MF-2, dated:8-3-1997, which is enclosed as Annexure-I to the OA, the 4th respondent was offered an appointment as a regular Group-'D' Ground Staff as Farm Hand. By that Order, it is stated, nearly 30 applicants have been ignored, which is totally arbitrary and illegal for the reasons that 1991-92 list which was kept in abeyance till March,1997 is being given effect contrary to the latest pronouncement of the Supreme Court, reported in 1996(6) SCALE 676 in THE EXCISE SUPERINTENDENT, MALKA-PATNAM, KRISHNA DISTRICT Vs KBN.VISHWESHWAR RAO & OTHERS.

4. This OA is filed for a declaration that the action of the respondents in adopting the pick and choose method in <sup>the</sup> selection of several persons as Farm Hands, who are juniors to atleast 30 persons, ~~which~~ is contrary to Article 14 and 16 of the Constitution of India, and for a consequential declaration that the impugned Proceedings No.080308/E/MF-2, dated: 8-3-1997, issued by Respondent No.1 to Respondent No.4, is void, and for <sup>a</sup> further consequential direction to recruit the persons by notifying the vacancies as per the Law laid down by the Supreme Court referred to above.

5. A reply <sup>only</sup> has been filed in this OA. The respondents submit that <sup>the</sup> sponsored candidates through Employment Exchange are being selected by R-3, and this procedure adopted by the Farm is as per laid down orders. The candidates sponsored by the Employment Exchange were called for Interview in the office of the Respondent No.3 on 30-5-1992, and accordingly the Employment Exchange was intimated and the recruitment was made. Hence, the respondents deny the allegation of the applicants in this regard. The Respondent No.4 was appointed on that basis some time in March, 1997. The respondents also submit that there is no selection of daily labourers through Selection Committee or Board as contended by the applicants.

6. The appointment of a regular Group-'D' staff is to be done by a widely circulated notification. This is in accordance with the Judgment of the Supreme Court in THE EXCISE SUPERINTENDENT, MALKAPATNAM, KRISHNA DISTRICT Vs K.B.N.VISHWESHWAR RAO & OTHERS (reported in 1996(6) SCALE 676). That Judgment was issued in the year 1996. Hence, the laid down procedure adopted earlier to 1996 for recruitment of Group-'D' staff/ Daily Casual Labourers are to be followed for earlier recruitment. In the year 1992, the recruitment was done on the basis of the candidates sponsored by the Employment Exchange submits the respondents. Hence, that recruitment cannot be challenged. Even if it has to be challenged, the applicants should have come to this Tribunal immediately after the issue of the selection list way back in 1992 or 1993. But unfortunately they approached this Tribunal only on 26-9-1997. Hence, setting aside that select list may not be in order. However, for vacancies that arise in future wide publicity should be given and the casual labourers in the Farm Hands should also be allowed to apply for the selection. On the basis of a regularly selected list, the recruitment to the Group-'D' staff should be made.

7. With the above direction, the OA is disposed of. No costs.
