ORDER

( Per Hon'ble Sri H. Rajendra Prasad: Member (Admin.)

Heard Mr. Phaniraj for Mr. P. Naveen Rao for the applicant and Mr. N.R. Devaraj for the Respondents.

The applicant claims to have worked between 1980-1983 on casual basis and claims also that he was duly mustered during this period. He has not been engaged after 23.12.93.
Fourteen years have elapsed between his last engagement and filing of this application, an interval during which several events may have taken place, including the formulation and implementation of schemes for the regularisation of eligible casual mazdoors preceded by the conferment of temporary status on them. The applicant has apparently slumbered through this entire period and has woken up to his stated claims, such as they are, only now. There is little point in taking back this case to more than a decade of inaction on part of the applicant, and try to establish the rights of the applicant.

There is no merit in the O.A. Nevertheless, in case the respondents decide at any stage to engage casual labourers directly from the open market, the claim of the applicant may be considered in preference to fresh faces.

Thus the O.A. is disposed of.
