2. The applicant herein was engaged as Short Duty Telephone Operator for a period of 120 days from 1-11-1980. He was discharged from duties with effect from 1-5-1981.

3. The applicant relying on the decision of this Tribunal in OA.No.1784 of 1992, decided on 24-5-1993, has filed this OA praying for a declaration that the action of the respondents in not absorbing him as a Telephone Operator/Office Assistant on par with other similarly situated candidates is highly illegal, arbitrary and unconstitutional, and for a consequential direction to the respondents to absorb him as Office Assistant/Telephone Operator with all consequential benefits.

4. The applicant herein was discharged on 1-5-1981. After a lapse of nearly 18 years, he has approached this Tribunal. The applicant has not explained this long delay. He has also failed to approach this Tribunal soon after the decision in OA.No.1784 of 1992 was given. The only reason given by the applicant is that he was representing his case to the respondents. Repeated representations will not extend the period of limitation. The applicant submits that the other similarly situated persons has been appointed. There is nothing quoted here in regard to that similarly situated persons. The learned Counsel for the Respondents submits that no such other similarly situated person has been appointed.

5. Even without this reply from the respondents this DA has to be dismissed as the applicant failed to approach this Tribunal in time. Even if in accordance with the directions in DA.No.1784 of 1992, the applicant gets the relief as prayed for, the same cannot be granted because of the delay and latches.

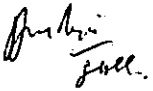

6. The DA is dismissed for delay and latches. However, we make it clear that this dismissal order will not stand in the way of the applicant to get engagement if the departmental authorities allow him to join.
