Heard Mrs.Shakti for Sri J.R.Gopal Rao, learned Standing Counsel for the Respondents. None for the applicant.

2. The applicant was appointed as provisional EDDA, Wadde Kothapalli with effect from 10.5.1998 in the place of one Mr.Uppalaiah, who was working as such. The provisional appointment was necessitated in view of the fact that the regular incumbent died. A notification was issued bearing No.PP/EDDA/W.Palli dated 25.2.1999 (Annexure-II page-13 to the OA) for filling up that post on regular basis. It is stated ⁱⁿ ~~that~~ the notification ~~that~~ the post is reserved for ST community candidates.

3. The applicant and others applied for the the same. Before finalisation of the results, the applicant¹ has filed this OA on 13.4.1999 praying to direct the Respondents herein to retain and continue the applicant¹ therein as Extra Departmental Delivery Agent of Waddee Kothapalli Village, Kodakonda Mandal, Warangal District on regular basis with all consequential benefits and attendant benefits by set ^{by} aside the notification dated 25.2.1999 and by holding that the action of the Respondents herein treating the post of Extra Departmental Delivery Agent of Wadde~~x~~Kothapalli Village, Kodakondla Mandalam of Warangal District by set aside the notification dated 25.2.1999 as reserved for the Scheduled Tribe candidates though it is reserved for the Backward Class community candidates and resorting to fill up the said post by a non-local/local Scheduled Tribe candidate and not continuing and retaining the Applicant¹ therein who is working as Extra Departmental Delivery Agent of Wadde Kothapalli is illegal, arbitrary, discriminatory, unconstitutional and violative of Articles 14, 16 and 21 of the Constitution.

4. ~~The first point for consideration in this OA is~~ whether the post can be reserved for ST community. The applicant submits that the post was earlier filled by OBC community candidate. Hence reserving the same now for ST is irregular. The above contention is not at all ^{an} acceptable one. Filling up the post by a particular reserved category depends on availability of such reserved candidates in the cadre. The Respondents in page-5 of the reply has stated that against the 7.5% reservation for ST candidates, there should be 4.2 candidates in the cadre whereas there are only 2 candidates ~~are there~~ and there is short fall of 2 candidates. Hence the Respondents are perfectly in order if they reserve the post for ST community. Just because the post was occupied by OBC candidate earlier, it should not be treated ^{that} as it should be continued with the OBC candidate only. It depends on the availability of the representation of the reserved categories. As the availability of ST candidates in the cadre is less, than the requirement, the respondents have rightly reserved it for ST candidate. Hence the first contention fails.

5. The applicant has got no right to be considered against the vacancy reserved for ST when he is ^{an} OBC. Further, it will not be reserved for OBC also as the representation has more than the required OBC candidates as seen from the reply.

6. From the reading of the O.A. affidavit, we find that there is no other worthwhile contention in the O.A. Hence the OA is liable to be dismissed. An interim order was passed in this OA on 13.4.1999 for maintaining status quo. As the O.A. fails, the interim order is vacated. The Respondents are directed to fill up the post in response to the notification dated 25.2.1999 in accordance with the law.

7. The Original Application is disposed of. No order as to costs.
