O.A.No.303/99.

(by Hon'ble Sri R.Rangarajan, Member (A))
--

Heard Sri Krishna Devan for the Applicant
and Ms. Sakthi for Sri J.R. Bopal Rao for the Respondents.

The applicant was transferred by the impugned Order No, B/P.676/I/1 Sr.CCS dated 7.1.1999(Annexure No.1
Page 6 to the O.A.).

The applicant contends that he was punished for his mis-conduct and for that he was also transferred on reversion to NDO. He contends that this amounts to multiple penalties.

This O.A., is filed to set aside the impugned transfer order dated 7.1.1999(Annexure * page 6 to the O.A.)
and a consequential direction to continue him in the present place in the reverted post.

The applicant has submitted a representation D/19/20.2
to the Respondent No.4. It is stated that the said representation is still pending consideration.

Transfers are administrative matters. The Tribunal cannot interfere in the matter of transfers unless some mala fide intention is brought to the notice of the Tribunal. From a reading of the O.A., we do not see any motive on the part of the respondents for his transfer. It is, therefore, to be treated as an administrative action. However, his representation dated 19/20.2.199 to the Respondents No.4 is still pending consideration which is hereby directed to be disposed of by the Respondent No.4 expeditiously within 21 days from the date of receipt of a copy of this Order. Till then, if the applicant's requests for grant of leave, the same shall be granted to him.

The grounds raised in this O.A., are not relevant grounds for staying the transfer order.

With the above directions, the O.A., is disposed of. No costs.
