Heard the learned counsel for the applicant as well as the learned Standing Counsel for the Respondents.

2. It is submitted by the learned counsel for the applicant that interviews for the post of Class-II (Group-D) are likely to be held in near future. The applicants, according to the learned counsel in spite of being fully qualified to appear at the interview were denied the opportunity merely on the ground that they were not sponsored by the Employment Exchange. The applicants, of course have not given any specific particulars as to which Officer of the Respondents Department denied this opportunity and how many vacancies are there for the post in question. However, <sup>20</sup> ~~having regard to the fact that~~ it is now well settled that no opportunity of appearing at the interview could be denied merely on the ground that the candidate has not been sponsored by the Employment Exchange if otherwise the applicants appear to be eligible and qualified for consideration for such appointment.

3. This O.A. is therefore disposed of with a direction to the Respondents to allow the applicants to appear at the interview of Class-II (GROUP-D) post, even if their candidature has not been sponsored by the Employment Exchange, if they are otherwise found eligible for appearing at the interview for the post in question.
