2. This OA is filed praying for a direction to the respondents to regularise the services of the applicant's husband and consequently direct granting of pensionary benefits including family pension and Insurance amount with all other consequential and attendant benefits to which the applicant would become eligible.

3. The husband of the applicant died while he was a casual labourer and he was not regularised. Hence, the question of regularising the services of the applicant's husband does not arise. As the applicant's husband is not a temporary or a permanent employee of the Railways, the applicant has no right to claim any of the reliefs asked for in this OA. This is in accordance with the Apex Court Judgment in UNION OF INDIA & OTHERS Vs RABIA BIKANER ETC.; (reported in 1997(4) SLR 717).

4. In view of ^{the} above, the OA is disposed of at the admission stage itself. No costs.
