HYDERABAD BENCH

2. This CP is filed for non-implementation of the Order in the OA dated 4-8-1999. The Order in the OA reads as below:-

'Respondent No.2 should dispose of the pending query from Respondent No.1 within a period of 45 days from the date of receipt of copy of this Order. Respondent No.1 should finally decide this issue on the basis of reply received from Respondent No.2 within a month from the date of receipt of copy of reply from Respondent No.2.

If the applicant is going to be aggrieved by the final reply from the respondents, he is at liberty to take appropriate course.'

3. It is now stated that the Respondent No.2 has given the details of the service particulars pending query raised by the Respondent No.1 and though that has been sent belatedly, the Respondent No.2 has already progressed the case to take action, ^{which} should be completed before 7-5-2000. The learned Counsel for the Applicant submits that they should stick to their date of 7-5-2000 for replying the applicant suitably.

4. We do not find any wilful disobedience on the part of the Respondent No.2 in disposing of the pending query. But we advise the Respondent No.2 to be more careful in future in implementing the Orders of this Tribunal.

The Respondent No.1 should finally give the reply to the applicant on or before 20-5-2000.

5. With the above observations, the CP is closed. No costs.
