Stating that the appeal submitted by him to Respondent No.1 was still pending disposal, the applicant had sought a direction to be issued to the respondents not to compel him to vacate the said quarter.

3. It is submitted by the learned Addl.Standing Counsel that the appeal in question has since been disposed of by Respondent No.1 on 13.7.99 and the orders of the said Respondent have since been communicated to the Applicant on the same day; a copy of the communication, which was duly received on behalf of the applicant, has been filed and taken on record.

4. In view of the disclosure made above, this Tribunal does not find it possible to interfere any more on behalf of the Applicant in any manner.

5. The OA is dismissed subject to the following:-

The Applicant shall be permitted to occupy the quarter on the same basis as at present for a period of one month from today. This extension of time is considered essential to enable the Applicant to make an effective alternative arrangement to secure suitable accommodation for himself and his family. No costs.
