Heard the learned counsel for the rival parties. The learned senior standing counsel Sri B.N.Sarma for the Respondents fairly concedes, under instructions, that (1) the applicant need not appear at the written test scheduled to be held on 7-12-1998 in view of the fact that he had already appeared in the earlier written test which was held in January, 1998. He further conceded that his performance in the said test shall be considered for all purposes. In other words if the applicant had successfully passed the earlier written test, the same shall hold good. (2) However, ~~the applicant is at liberty to appear at the viva-voce test~~ now to be held after the written test and his performance shall be considered on that basis. If the applicant succeeds in viva-voce test, he will be selected irrespective of his previous result in the viva-voce and vice-versa. (3) For enabling the applicant to appear at viva-voce now to be held after the written test, the respondents shall send necessary call letters in that regard to the applicant at the relevant time.

The OA is disposed of with the above directions; however with no order as to costs.
