22.8.94

M Shri P.S. Sirohi, counsel for the applicant.
Shri V.S. Gurjar, counsel for the respondents.

Heard learned counsel for the parties. It is not in the interest of the public to consider the Military <sup>matters</sup> operation in such a light way. If there is any excess work, the person can be employed and should be employed and no arbitrary action should be taken. However, a person who wants appointment should go in time and should approach the authorities in time and thereafter he can claim the benefit. The applicant can again go and make submission whenever the vacancy is available on account of the excess work and thereafter his case will be considered by the authorities concerned for re engagement. With these remarks the MA stands disposed of.
