O R D E R (By Circulation)

The present Review Application has been filed by the respondents in the Transferred Application for reviewing/recalling the order dated 22.09.2011 passed in TA No.03/2008, Radhey Shyam Meena and ors. vs. Union of India and ors.

2. The order in the Transferred Application was passed on 22.9.2011 and the present Review Application has been filed on 23.1.2012 i.e. after a period of four months. As per clause (1) of Rule 17 of the Central Administrative Tribunal (Procedure) Rules, 1987, it is provided that no application for review shall be entertained unless it is filed within thirty days from the date of receipt of copy of the order sought to be reviewed.

3. The applicants in the Review Application have also filed a Misc. Application No.21/2012 for condonation of delay in filing the Review Application. We have perused the explanation given by the applicants in the Misc. Application for condonation of delay but we are not satisfied with the explanation so given for condoning the delay.

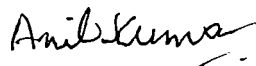

3. Further, the Hon'ble Supreme Court in para 4 of the judgment in the case of K.Ajit Babu vs. Union of India, 1998 (1) SLJ 85 observed as under:-

".....Besides that, the right of review is available if such application is filed within the period of limitation. The decision given by the Tribunal, unless reviewed or appealed against, attains finality. If such a power to review is permitted, no decision is final, as the decision would be subject to review at any time at the instance of party feeling adversely affected by the said decision. A party in whose favour a decision has been given cannot monitor the case of all times to come. Public policy demands that there should be end to law suits and if the view of the tribunal is accepted the proceedings in a case will never come to an end. We, therefore, find that a right of review is available to the aggrieved persons on restricted ground mentioned in Order 47 of the Code of Civil Procedure, if filed within the period of limitation."

4. Considering the provisions of Rule 17 of CAT (Procedure) Rules, 1987 and the ratio decided by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of K.Ajit Babu (supra), we are of the considered view that the Review Application is time barred and cannot be entertained at such a belated stage. Accordingly, the Review Application and Misc. Application both are not maintainable and, therefore, dismissed by circulation.
