ORDER

Per Hon'ble Mr. Gopal Singh, Administrative Member

Since Mr. Manish Bhandari, counsel for the respondents has not appeared despite the fact that his Briefholder Mr. Anupam Agarwal, Advocate, got the case adjourned for today, we have heard the counsel for the applicants, counsel for the private respondents and the departmental representative for the official respondents.
The records of the case have been carefully perused.

2. The controversy involved in all these 3 cases is the same and, therefore, all these applications are disposed of by this single order.

3. The brief facts of the case are that the applicants are rankers who had joined the respondent Department as Cleaners, got their promotions on ad hoc basis as 2nd Fireman and 1st Fireman and thereafter drafted on the post of Diesel Assistant on ad hoc basis. During the year 1989-90, the respondent Department conducted direct recruitment of Diesel Assistants through Railway Recruitment Board and it is proposed by the respondent Department to assign seniority to direct recruits over the rankers who had been working on ad hoc basis on the post of Diesel Assistants for a pretty long time. This controversy had come up earlier before a Division Bench in Jodhpur of the Central Administrative Tribunal, where one of us namely Hon'ble Mr. Gopal Singh, Adm. Member was also a member, in OA No.404 of 1992, Madan Lal and Ors. vs. Union of India and Ors., and it was held that the respondent Department had committed a mistake in initiating direct recruitment for the post of Diesel Assistant through Railway Recruitment Board as the proper procedure for filling up the post of Diesel Assistant was through lateral induction of 1st Fireman/2nd Fireman and only resultant vacancies were to be filled up by direct recruitment.

4. For detailed reasons recorded in the order dated 22.12.1998 in OA No.404 of 1992, Madan Lal and Ors. Vs. Union of India and Ors., mentioned supra, these applications are disposed of with the following directions:

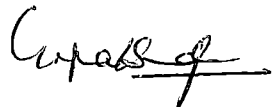

- (i) The post of Diesel Assistant for the respective recruitment year should first be filled up from amongst the rankers who were holding the post of Diesel Assistant on ad hoc basis and who were found qualified to hold the post in the selection test held subsequently.

Compulsory

- (ii) The appointment of direct recruits to the post of Diesel Assistants would be treated as ad hoc till they are appointed against the regular post and they will be entitled to seniority from the notional date of completion of normal training of 52 weeks or the date they are appointed on regular basis whichever is later. This would imply that the rankers would rank senior to the direct recruits.

5. Parties are left to bear their own costs.
