Heard Mr A. Dasgupta, learned counsel appearing on behalf of the applicants Union and Mr A.K.Choudhury, learned Addl.C.G.S.C for the respondents. Mr Dasgupta apprehends that any type of action might be taken by the authorities after the closure of the establishment. Mr A.K.Choudhury on the other hand opposes the admission on the ground that the application is pre- mature because the authority is yet to take any decision in the matter. He also submits that the decision that may be taken by the authority may be beneficial to the applicants also. In that case there may not be any necessity of the applicants to approach this Tribunal. Realising the position Mr Dasgupta prays for withdrawal of this application with
