O R D E R (ORAL)

CHOWDHURY. J. (V.C.)

All these applications were taken up together since they involve common questions of law and similar facts.

2. The applicant in O.A.No.403/2000 is the wife and the applicants in the other O.A.s are the sons of Commissioned Vendors, since deceased, under the Railway Catering Unit. In these applications the applicants have sought for a direction on the respondents to engage them as Commissioned Vendors under the Railway Catering Unit on compassionate ground on the death of their husband and father respectively.

3. Mr A. Verma, learned counsel for the applicants, strenuously contended that the Railways being an authority is duty bound to consider the case of these applicants for engaging them as Commissioned Vendors.

4. Mr H. Chakraborty, learned Advocate appearing on behalf of Mr J.L. Sarkar, learned Railway Counsel, mainly questioned the maintainability of the applications apart from the other grounds raised in the applications. In my view the subject matter is beyond the jurisdiction of the Tribunal. The jurisdiction, power and authority of the Tribunal is delineated in the statute confining to the recruitment as well as service matters concerning the persons mentioned in Section 14 of the Administrative Tribunals Act, 1985. Service matters are defined in Clause (q) of Section 3 of the Act. Any other matter mentioned in Clause (q) is to be read ejus dem generis, i.e. and therefore, it must be analogous to any of the clauses mentioned under (i) to (v).

5. For the aforesaid reasons I accept the contention raised by Mr H. Chakraborty and this Tribunal has no jurisdiction to continue with the proceeding. The applications are thus dismissed, leaving it open to the applicants to take appropriate measure before the appropriate forum as per law. Considering the plight of the applicants, as a special case, the interim orders passed earlier shall continue for a month to enable them to take appropriate steps as per law.

No order as to costs.
