DETAILS OF APPLICATION

1. PARTICULARS OF THE ORDER AGAINST WHICH THE APPLICATION IS MADE :

This application is directed against issuance of office order under Memo No. F.NO.ND-8/96-NVS(Pers) dated 8.8.2001 seeking to repatriate the Applicant to his parent department.

without first considering his case for absorption as per the provisions of the Navodaya Vidyalaya Samiti Recruitment (Revised) Rules 1995 ,as amended.

2. JURISDICTION OF THE TRIBUNAL :

The Applicant declares that the subject matter of the application is within the jurisdiction of this Hon'ble Tribunal.

3. LIMITATION :

The Applicant further declares that the application is filed within the limitation period prescribed under Section 21 of the Administrative Tribunals Act, 1985.

4. FACTS OF THE CASE :

4.1 That the Applicant is a citizen of India and is in connection with his work presently residing at Kokrajhar and as such, he is entitled to all the rights, protections and privileges guaranteed under the Constitution of India.

4.2 That the Applicant has by way of this application raised a grievance against the action on the part of the authorities of the samiti in issuing office order dated 8.8.2001 seeking to repatriate him to his parent department, without first considering his case for absorption as per the provisions of the Recruitment Rules, 1995. The Applicant has already appeared in a selection held for recruitment for the post of Principal on direct recruitment basis and the result of which has been withheld pending disposal of an OA filed by him before this Hon'ble Tribunal. Poised thus the action on the part of the authorities of the samiti in proceeding to repatriate the Applicant, without first considering his case for absorption under the Recruitment Rules holding the field and/or waiting for the disposal of the OA filed by the Applicant, has adversely effected the interest of the Applicant. Left with no other alternative the Applicant has by way of this application come under the protective hands of Your Lordships praying for redressal of his grievances.

4.3 That the Applicant while working as Senior Teacher in Government H.S. School, Roing D4-Dibang Valley, Arunachal Pradesh applied for appointment as Principal, Jawahar Navodaya Vidyalaya on deputation basis and thereafter appeared in a selection held for the same. On being selected the Applicant was vide letter dated 28.11.96 offered appointment as Principal in Navodaya Vidyalaya Samiti on transfer on deputation basis. The Applicant accepting the offer held out to him joined as Principal, JNV, Kokrajhar.

A copy of the letter dated 28.11.96 is annexed as Annexure-1.

4.4 That as per the terms and conditions of the appointment letter issued to the Applicant, his appointment was initially for a period of two years, which was extendable for a further period upto four years by giving extensions on yearly basis. In the year 1998 on completion of the initial period of appointment the Applicant was granted further extension till the end of 1999. Thereafter in view of the excellent works being done by the Applicant he was granted further extension till the end of 2000. The Applicant since the date of his initial appointment in the samiti has been discharging the responsibilities entrusted to him to the best of his ability and without blemish to any quarter.

4.5 That in view of the excellent works being done by the Applicant a proposal was mooted for his permanent absorption in the samiti. The Respondent No. 3 in response to such proposal, vide his letter dated 4.8.2000 intimated the Chairman, JNV, Kokrajhar, that as there was no provisions for absorption in the samiti it would not be feasible to absorb the Applicant permanently. It was also observed that the Applicant may apply for the Principal as and when the same is advertised for appointment on direct recruitment basis.

Copy of the letter dated 4.8.2000 is annexed as Annexure-2.

4.6 That the Applicant states that the samiti vide an advertisement which appeared in the issue dated 11-17th, November, 2000 of the "Employment News" invited application for filling up of the post of Principals on direct recruitment basis for the Navodaya Vidyalaya's spread all over the country. The Applicant in pursuance to the said advertisement applied for the said post through proper channel and the application of the Applicant was forwarded by the competent authority to the Respondent No. 2 Samiti.

A copy of the said advertisement is annexed as Annexure-3.

4.7 That even after lapse of considerable time, when no call letters was issued to the Applicant for appearing in the selection scheduled in pursuance to the Annexure-3.

CMS

advertisement, the Applicant approached this Hon'ble Tribunal by way of an application being DA No.96/2001 making a grievance against the arbitrary and illegal action on the part of the authorities in not allowing him to appear in the said interview and thereby denying him an opportunity for being appointed as Principal on regular basis in the Samiti. This Hon'ble Tribunal upon hearing the parties was pleased vide its order dated 7.3.2001 to admit the application with a further direction to the Respondents to allow the Applicant to appear in the interview for recruitment for the post of Principal Navodaya Vidyalaya.

A copy of the order dated 7.3.2001 is annexed as Annexure-4.

4.8 That the Applicant states that as per direction of this Hon'ble Tribunal he appeared in the selection held in pursuance to the Annexure-3 advertisement and to the best of his knowledge he has being selected therein. The results of the said selection, as far as it concerns the Applicant, has been withheld as per directions passed by this Hon'ble Tribunal. The said DA preferred by the Applicant is pending disposal before this Hon'ble Tribunal.

4.9 That the Applicant states that when the period of extension of his deputation was about to come to an end, he was directed by the authorities to continue for another year i.e. for the fifth year. In this connection the Respondent No. 4 vide his letter dated 9.11.2000 took up the matter of further extension of the period of deputation of the Applicant with the Samiti, with the Respondent No. 6. In the said letter it was inter-alia stated that the Samiti was facing hardships in getting suitable candidates for the post of Principal and as the Applicant was doing good work throughout, his leaving the school would be detrimental to the interest of the students as well as the Samiti. It was also stated that if during the period Applicant was not absorbed in the samiti, he would be repatriated. The said letter was followed by letter dated 13.12.2000 wherein also the Respondent No. 6 was requested to allow the Applicant to continue with the Samiti till the end of December, 2001.

Copies of the letters dated 9.11.2000 and 13.12.2000 are annexed as Annexure-5 & 6 respectively.

4.10 That the Applicant states that the Respondent No. 2, Samiti has formulated Rules for regulating the method of recruitment to the Posts in Navodaya Vidyalaya Samiti. The said Rules are called the "Navodaya Vidyalaya Samiti Recruitment (Revised) Rules, 1995." As per the provisions of the said Rules any deputationist seeking permanent employment in the Samiti will have to apply for direct recruitment as per the provisions of the said Rules. There was no provision for absorption of the services of a deputationist under the said Rules. It was precisely for this reason that when proposals were mooted for absorption of the Applicant's in the Samiti permanently, the authorities had expressed their helplessness in absorbing the Applicant.

A copy of the said Rules of 1995 is annexed as Annexure-7.

CM

4.11 That the Applicant states that the bar imposed under the Rules excluding absorption of deputationist had prevented the authorities from considering the case of the Applicant for absorption on permanent basis, inspite of the fact that his services were very much required by the Samiti. The Samiti vide notification issued under memo No. F.NO.1-5/95-NVS(Admn.) dated 21.6.2001 amended Clause 2(iii) of the said Rules and the same at present reads as follows:

"Persons working on deputation for atleast 02 years on a post in the Samiti may be considered for permanent absorption."

A copy of the notification dated 21.6.2000 is annexed as Annexure-8.

4.12 That the Applicants states that pursuant to issuance of the Annexure-8 notification the hurdle existing on the path of the authorities towards considering the case of the Applicant for absorption on permanent basis in the Samiti has been removed. As such the case of the Applicant can now be considered for absorption as per provisions of the Recruitment Rules. Further pursuant to the issuance of the said Notification a right has accrued to the Applicant for having his case considered for absorption on permanent basis in the Samiti.

4.13 That as per Clause 2(iii) of the Recruitment Rules as it stands after amendment, the minimum requisite period for consideration of cases of deputationist for permanent absorption is two years and the Applicant having by now completed nearly 5 years of dedicated and sincere service in the Samiti, his case is required to be considered as per the provisions of the Recruitment Rules, for absorption on permanent basis.

4.14 That the Applicant states that he was shocked and surprised to come across an office order dated 8.8.2001 issued by the Respondent No. 3, repatriating the services of the Applicant to his parent department purportedly on administrative ground as per request made by the Respondent No. 6. The said office order has been issued without first considering the case of the Applicant for absorption on permanent basis in the Samiti and/or without waiting for the outcome of the application being OA No. 96/2001 pending disposal before this Hon'ble Tribunal.

A copy of the office order dated 8.8.2001 is annexed as Annexure-9.

4.15 That the Applicant states that in the interview held in pursuance to the Annexure-3 advertisement, he had successfully answered the question posed to him by the members of the board and this coupled with his educational qualification and experience he is confident that his case has been recommended for appointment as Principal in the Samiti. Further the Applicant has valid reasons to believe that the application being OA No. 96/2000 would be decided in his favour by this Hon'ble Tribunal. Poised thus the impugned order dated 8.8.2001, if implemented would frustrate the claim of the Applicant for appointment as Principal on regular basis in the Samiti. The impugned order has been issued contrary to the promises held out by the Respondents and the same is with the view to render the application being OA No.96/2001 filed by the Applicant infructuous.

4.16 That in addition to his right of being appointed on regular basis in the Samiti as per the results of the interview held in pursuance to the Annexure-3 advertisement, the Applicant's case is also required to be considered for absorption on permanent basis as per the provisions of Clause 2(iii) of the said Rules. The issuance of the impugned order dated 8.8.2001 without first considering the case of the Applicant for absorption on permanent basis has the effect of depriving the Applicant of his rights under the provisions of the said Rules for appointment on permanent basis. The impugned order has been issued only with a view to frustrate the claim of the Applicant for consideration of his case as per the provisions of the said Rules.

4.17 That the Applicant submits that as and when the question of extension of his deputation arose the authorities of the Samiti had projected him as an able and efficient official and had stated his services to be indispensable, but when the question of absorption of his services in the Samiti arose, the same authorities ignoring the said stand taken by them, have proceeded to issue orders repatriating the services of the Applicant to his parent department without even affording an opportunity to the Applicant for having his case considered for absorption of his services in the Samiti. The authorities of the Samiti cannot be allowed to approbate and reprobate in the same breath.

4.18 That it is the cardinal principles of service jurisprudence that when the Rules governing the services of the employees concerned provide for consideration of case of deputationist for appointment on permanent basis, before repatriating the deputationist concerned his case must necessarily be considered for absorption. As such the Applicant who possesses all the required qualifications for appointment as Principal in the Samiti must necessarily be considered as per provisions of the Rules for absorption in the Samiti on permanent basis before issuing orders repatriating him to his parent department.

4.19 That the impugned order dated 8.8.2001 has been stated to have issued as per the request made by the Respondent No. 6 vide his letter dated 17.7.2001. The Applicant on receipt of the impugned order dated 8.8.2001 contacted the Education Department, Arunachal Pradesh and enquired as to the reason necessitating issuance of the letter dated 17.7.2001 and he was given to understand that as the Samiti had not taken any decision regarding absorption of the services of the Applicant, the Respondent No. 6 was facing problem in filling up the vacancy caused by the Applicant going on deputation to the Samiti. The Applicant was further given to understand that in the event he is absorbed in the Samiti the Government of Arunachal Pradesh would have no objection to the same and their anxiety is confined only to a speedy decision in the matter. It has also been gathered by the Applicant that in the said letter dated 17.7.2001 the Respondent No. 6 had requested for repatriation of the Applicant only in the event he is not absorbed in the Samiti.

ENP

4.20 That the Respondents having utilised the services of the Applicant for more than 4 years they cannot deprive him of an opportunity of being appointed as Principal on regular basis. The Respondents who are model employees ought not to have adopted such a rigid attitude against a person who according to their own version had discharged his duties to the satisfaction of one and all. The Respondents cannot be allowed to reprobate and approbate at the same time.

4.21 That in view of the facts and circumstances stated above it is a fit case wherein Your Lordships would be pleased to interfere and be pleased to set aside the impugned order dated 8.8.2001 and direct the Respondents to consider the case of the Applicant for absorption in the Samiti as per the provisions of the said Rules.

4.22 That the Applicant states that it is a fit case wherein Your Lordships would be pleased to pass an interim order as has been prayed for, failing which the Applicant stands to face irreparable loss and injury.

4.23 That the Applicant states that in the event this Hon'ble Tribunal is pleased to pass an interim direction as has been prayed for the balance of convenience of would be maintained in favour of the Applicant, inasmuch as the impugned order dated 8.8.2001 is yet to be given effect to and the Applicant is continuing as the Principal, NVS, Kokrajhar. The mandatory audit as directed to be conducted in the impugned order dated 8.8.2001 is yet to be conducted and the Applicant would be released only after completion of the said mandatory audit.

4.24 That this application has been filed bonafide and to secure the ends of justice.

5. GROUND FOR RELIEF WITH LEGAL PROVISIONS :

5.1 For that the action on the part of the authorities of the Samiti in issuing the Annexure-9 order dated 8.8.2001 is per-se illegal, arbitrary and discriminatory.

5.2 For that it being the case of the authorities throughout that the Applicant could not be absorbed in the Samiti in spite of the excellent works being done by him due to the bar imposed by the Recruitment Rules; the Rules having been amended and provision made therein for absorption of the services of the deputationist, the impugned order could not have been issued without first considering the case of the Applicant for absorption.

5.3 For that the Government of Arunachal Pradesh having all along been asking the authorities of the Samiti to take a decision as regards absorption of the Applicant and to repatriate him only in the event his services are not absorbed in the Samiti, the authorities of the Samiti ought not to have acted on the request made by the Respondent No. 6 on piecemeal basis without considering the case of the Applicant for absorption in the Samiti permanently.

5.4 For that consideration of the case for absorption of deputationist completing two years service in the Samiti having been provided for under the Service Rules, the case of the Applicant who has by now completed nearly 5 years of service in the Samiti ought to have been considered for absorption in the Samiti on permanent basis.

5.5 For that the Respondent No. 6 having all along stated that the Government of Arunachal Pradesh would raise no objection in the event the Applicant is absorbed on permanent basis, the action on the part of the authorities of the Samiti in issuing the Annexure-9 order dated 8.8.2001 is illegal, arbitrary and discriminatory and the same is liable to be set aside and quashed.

5.6 For that the Applicant who possesses all the requisite qualifications for appointment as Principal on regular basis ought to have been given an opportunity for appointment as Principal on regular basis and the action on the part of the authorities in denying the same has violated the provisions of Article 14 and 16 of the Constitution of India, in addition to violating the principles of natural justice.

5.7 For that in any view of the matter the impugned order dated 8.8.2001 is not sustainable and the same is liable to be set aside and quashed.

The Applicant craves leave of this Hon'ble Tribunal to advance additional grounds at the time of hearing of the case.

WMP

6. DETAILS OF REMEDIES EXHAUSTED :

The Applicant declares that he has no other alternative and efficacious remedy except by way of filing this application.

7. MATTERS NOT PREVIOUSLY FILED OR PENDING BEFORE ANY OTHER COURT :

The Applicant further declares that no other application, writ petition or suit in respect of the subject matter of the instant application is filed before any other Court, Authority or any other Bench of the Hon'ble Tribunal nor any such application, writ petition or suit is pending before any of them.

8. RELIEFS SOUGHT FOR :

Under the facts and circumstances stated above, the Applicant prays that this application be admitted, records be called for and notice be issued to the Respondents to show cause as to why the reliefs sought for in this application should not be granted and upon hearing the parties and on perusal of the records, be pleased to grant the following reliefs :

8.1 To set aside and quash the impugned Annexure-9 order dated 8.8.2001

8.2 To direct the authorities of the Respondent No. 2 Samiti to take action towards permanent absorption of the Applicant in the Samiti with retrospective effect and with all consequential benefits.

8.3 Cost of the application.

8.4 Any other relief/reliefs that the Applicant is entitled to in the facts and circumstances of the case.

9. INTERIM ORDER PRAYED FOR :

Under the facts and circumstances of the case, the Applicant prays that Your Lordships would be pleased to stay the effect and operation of the Annexure-9 order dated 8.8.2001 with a further direction to allow the Applicant to continue as the Principal, JNV, Kokrajhar and/or be pleased to pass such further order/order as Your Lordships may deem fit and proper.

The application is filed through Advocate.

of Shri C.K.P. Naidu, Principal, JNV, Kokrajhar, Assam.

Sir,

Kindly refer to this office letter of even number dated 3.4.2000 on the subject cited above vide which you were requested to grant extension in respect of Shri C.K.P. Naidu upto the end of December, 2000.

Since the hardships being faced by the Samiti for getting suitable candidates for the post of Principals have already been explained in the said letter, you are further requested to grant extension to Shri Naidu upto December, 2001 i.e. for the fifth year as Shri Naidu is doing good work throughout and leaving the school without Principal in the month of December, if extension is not granted, will have a definite set back to those students who are appearing in Board Exams in particular.

You may kindly appreciate our difficulty and grant extension for the fifth year before that if he is not absorbed by that time, he may be repatriated definitely.

Yours faithfully,
