1. That, the Applicant filed an Application before the Hon'ble Tribunal against the Order, dated 20.4.2001, (Annexure-6 to the O.A.) by the said Order her service was terminated. Before the said illegal termination the Petitioner was serving as EDPBM. Without regularising her as EDPBM her service was terminated. Be it stated here that, at the time of termination the prayer of the Petitioner for compassionate appointment was pending before the Respondents.

2. That, by Order, dated 28.02.02, passed in O.A. No. 194 of 2001, the Hon'ble Tribunal disposed of the Application with the following observation.

" I am not inclined to go into those issues since on the own showing of the Respondents the application of the Applicant for compassionate appointment was forwarded to the Chief Post Master General, N.E. Region, Shillong, on 12.06.2001, I am of the opinion that the matter should be sent back to the Respondent authority to consider the case of the Applicant as per law either for compassionate appointment or for granting temporary status. 6. That, for this reason the Respondents have become liable to be proceeded against for the contempt of the Judgements of the Hon'ble Tribunal and contempt proceeding against them should be drawn up to ensure due compliance of the above referred Judgement of the Hon'ble Tribunal.

This application is directed and has arisen against the order dated 20.4.2001 (Annexure-6 to the O.A.) passed by the respondents terminating the service of the applicant. The applicant also sought for further direction for conferring the benefit of regular service under the respondents.

The father of the applicant Hiralal Nandi was working as Branch Postmaster at Krishna Nagar (since deceased). Her father went on leave and during his absence on leave on the risk and responsibility the applicant was allowed to work in place of the EDA Krishna Nagar Branch Office vide order dated 26.10.1995. The applicant provided necessary security and other material records. The father of the applicant died on 9.3.1997 while he was on leave. The applicant prayed before the authority for her regular appointment as EDPBM. No action was taken on the prayer of the applicant for regularisation of her service as EDPBM. The applicant was allowed to act at EDPBM. The authority took steps for filling up the vacant post and sent the requisition to the Employment Exchange for sponsoring candidates. The case of the applicant was also considered. According to the applicant her case was not considered in right perspective. The respondents took steps to replace her. She submitted a representation. By the impugned order dated 20.4.2001 her service was terminated. The applicant preferred appeal and representation. The applicant also applied for appointment on compassionate ground. Failing to get appropriate remedy the applicant moved this Tribunal assailing the action of the respondents.

2. The respondents submitted its written statement. In the written statement the respondents stated that her case was considered for regular appointment but she was not found suitable. She worked as substitute during the leave period of the EDBPM who subsequently expired on 9.3.1997. The respondents stated that the applicant continued her service unauthorisedly till the impugned order of termination was issued. The nomination of her father automatically came to an end on 9.3.1997. The applicant was asked to apply for appointment on compassionate ground. The applicant applied for appointment on compassionate ground and the application of the applicant for compassionate appointment was forwarded to the Chief Post Master General, N.E.Circle, Shillong vide letter No. A-62 dated 12.5.2001. The respondents in their written statement also expressed its misgivings as to whether the applicant could be considered for appointment on compassionate ground. The applicant being a married daughter she would not fall as dependent family member, more so when the wife of the deceased is alive she could not be considered as a sole dependent for appointment on compassionate ground.

3. Heard Mr. B.K.Sharma, learned Sr. counsel appearing on behalf of the applicant and Mr. A. Deb Roy, learned Sr. C.G.S.C.

4. I am not inclined to go into those issues since on the own showing of the respondents the application of the applicant for compassionate appointment was forwarded to the Chief Post Master General, N.E.Region, Shillong on 12.6.2001. I am of the opinion that the matter should be sent back to the respondent authority to consider the case of the applicant as per law either for compassionate appointment or for granting temporary status. Needless to say that the scheme for granting temporary status is applicable to all Casual Labours. Mr. B.K.Sharma, learned Sr. counsel for the applicant also drawn my attention to a Full Bench decision rendered by Hyderabad Bench of the Central Administrative Tribunal in O.A. Nos. 912/92 and 961/92 on 7.6.1993 in the case of Sakkubai and N.J. In the matter of :

Affidavit submitted by Shri P.K.

General, N.E. Circle, Shillong-1, alleged contemner No.2.

The humble Contemner No 2 begs to submit -

1. That save and except what has been specifically admitted herein below in this affidavit, all other statements made by the petitioner in the C.P. may be treated as denied by the answering respondent and further does not admit the statements made by the petitioner which are contrary to and/or inconsistent with the records of the case.

2. That with regard to the statement made in para-1, of the contempt application, the respondents beg to state that it is true that the applicant filed an application under O.A. No. 194/2001 before the Hon'ble Tribunal, Guwahati challenging the order dated 20.04.2001 of the respondents. Regular BPM Sri Hira Lal Nandi proceeded on leave for 180 days from 21.11.96 by handing over charge to Smt. Gopa Nandi (Deb) to work as nominee/substitute at the risk and responsibility of Sri Hiralal-Nandi. Sri Hiralal Nandi regular BPM expired on 09.03.97, hence nominee arrangement also automatically expired with the death of Regular BPM on 09.03.97. So regularisation of her services as BPM without going through the procedures laid down by the department, ^{was not possible.} Further her application for compassionate appointment with synopsis was received by the circle office Shillong on 19.6.2001. The Circle Selection Committee meeting for compassionate appointment held on 29.11.2001 could not consider her case for appointment on the ground that " The applicant is a married daughter of deceased employee. She therefore, can not be considered as dependent of the Ex-employee. More over the son of the Ex-employee is a Govt. employee. Hence the case is not re-commanded " para 3(3).

A copy of the letter is annexed herewith and marked as Annexure - 'A'.

3. That with regard to para 2, of the contempt application the respondents beg to offer no comment.

4. That with regard to the statement made in para 3, 4 & 5, of the contempt petition, the respondents beg to state that before comment the deponent respectfully submits the respondents do not have the slightest intention to disobey or dishonour the order of the Hon'ble Tribunal. The respondents have not done anything for disobedience willful or otherwise of the order of the Hon'ble Tribunal. The respondents also make respectful submission to the Hon'ble Tribunal about the circumstances causing difficulty on the part of the respondents.

The order dated 28.02.2002 of the Hon'ble Tribunal was received by this office on 23.3.2002. Thereafter the matter was taken up with the higher authority for guidance in the matter and implementation of the order as the applicant had no official status but was a nominee/substitute of an ED official. In this context it is respectfully submitted that a decision in the matter of appointment has to traverse through a number of channels. In the instant case, the expression is that the case should be disposed of as per law either for compassionate appointment or for granting temporary status, created some confusion in the interpretation of temporary status to GDSDA and as such matter was referred to Selection Committee for consideration afresh for compassionate appointment under relaxation of normal rules on special ground. After completion of the entire process of compassionate appointment and holding of Selection Committee Meeting on 24.3.03 and on 2.4.03, the Committee approved her case for appointment as GDSMD on compassionate ground along with other cases. Accordingly the direction of the Circle office Shillong was conveyed to DPS/Agartala under Memo No. Staff/175/SEL/2001 dated 1.5.2003. She was appointed provisionally as Gramin Dak Sevak Mail Deliverer under Memo No. A.2/Barjala/GDSMD dated 10.7.03. according to her willingness to work as such.

Copy of M.O. dated 1.5.03 is annexed herewith and marked as Annexure - B and Copy of M.O. Dated 10.7.03 is annexed herewith and marked as Annexure - C. respectively.

That it is submitted that the respondents have complied with the order of the Hon'ble CAT and it is further submitted that the respondents acted with regard and respect to the order of the Hon'ble Tribunal and they did not do anything to violate the order of the Hon'ble CAT not to speak of willful and deliberate violation of the order of the Hon'ble CAT.

It is further submitted that the respondents have not committed contempt of the Tribunal and as such the contempt proceedings may be discussed to meet the ends of justice.

I, P.K. Chatterjee at present working as Chief Postmaster General, N.E. Circle, Shillong, do hereby solemnly affirm and state as follows :-
