O R D E R (ORAL)

CHOWDHURY. J. (V.C.)

The core issue relates to providing of retiral benefits to the applicant. The applicant claims to be the wife of Late Dwijendra Ray who died while he was in service as an Electric Fitter at New Guwahati, N.F. Railway. The applicant pleaded that after the death of her husband she left for her original residence with her two minor sons and therefore she could not pursue the matter with right earnest. According to the applicant her husband was appointed as Khalasi (P) on 22.8.1947 under the AEE/ Maligaon vide order No.E/255/1/444 dated 5.2.1977. The applicant pleaded that she was a totally illiterate person and because of her ignorance she could not pursue the matter with right earnest. Finally, overcoming all difficulties she submitted a representation before the authority on 27.12.2001 for remedial measures. Failing to get appropriate remedy the applicant moved this Tribunal for redressal of her grievance.

2. The respondents raised the plea of limitation and contended that the applicant's husband retired long before the establishment of the Tribunal. Even otherwise the claim of the applicant is stale and time barred. During the course of hearing also the respondents pleaded that it is difficult to place the facts before the Tribunal for want of the records. Time was given to the respondents to get hold of the records.

3. Mr S. Sarma, learned counsel appearing on behalf of the Railway Standing Counsel, took enormous trouble to get the records, but expressed his inability to get the records.

4. I have heard Mrs S. Deka, learned counsel for the applicant and Mr S. Sarma, learned counsel for the respondents. The plea of limitation raised by Mr S. Sarma is no doubt a substantial question of law. Predictability and certainty is one of the facets of law. But then, here the matter pertains to pension and other retiral benefits of an employee. Retiral benefit is not a bounty provided by the employer. It is a vested right of the employee. Non payment of pension is a wrong, a wrong of continuing.....

continuing nature. In the circumstances the application cannot be dismissed on the score of limitation. However, on the basis of the scanty materials it is difficult to issue any direction on the respondents for giving the pensionary benefit to the applicant. The applicant referred to the provisional list of seniority of Khalasi (P) in the scale of pay of Rs.70-85/-(AS) as on 1.4.1965. The said provisional seniority list indicates that the applicant's husband, Late Dwijendra Ray was born on 28.7.1926. He was appointed as Khalasi (P) on 22.8.1947. The status of Late Ray was shown as a confirmed employee. The said communication at column 6 also indicates that the length of non-fortuitous adjusted service in the grade was computed as 17 years 7 months and 10 days against the name of Late Ray. If we go by that communication then the deceased husband of the applicant had rendered about twentysix years of service till 20.8.1972. But this is only a tentative finding. In my view the matter requires to be further probed which can only be done by the department and come to a definite finding on this.

5. The learned counsel for the applicant also referred to the factum of the applicant handing over the Quarter in which the family of Late Ray including the applicant lived in New Guwahati in 1973.

6. Considering all aspects of the matter I am of the opinion that this is a case which requires consideration at the hand of the respondents who are the lawful authority to take care of the situation. The applicant is accordingly directed to submit a representation narrating all the facts before the Divisional Railway Manager, N.F. Railway, Lumding within two weeks from the date of receipt of the order. If such representation is made the Divisional Railway Manager shall consider the same sympathetically and pass appropriate order as per law to provide the palliative to the applicant and her family. This direction is given on the peculiar facts of the case. It is also expected that the respondent No.4 on receipt of the said representation shall take its decision as early as possible, preferably within four months from the date of receipt of the representation.

With the above observation the application stands disposed of. No order as to costs.
