By Advocate Mr.S.Sarma.

O R D E R

CHOWDHURY J.(V.C.):

The issue relates to delay in payment of pensionary benefit.

1. The applicant joined Kendriya Vidyalaya as PG Teacher in 1966. In course of time he was appointed as Principal of the Kendriya Vidyalaya, Umrangso. He attained superannuation on 28.2.1998. His grievance in this application was that even after his retirement he was not paid with all retiral benefits. By communication bearing No.F.18/110/98/CPF/KVS/P & I dated 26/29.5.2000 Sr.Audit Officer, KVS, New Delhi sent the following communication to the applicant :

"Sir,

In supersession of this office sanction of even no. dated 14.01.2000. I am to forward herewith a copy of the revised sanction of the DCRG of Rs.218327.00. After deduction there from an amount of Rs.182700.00 on account of DCRG already paid to you. Demand draft for Rs.35627.00 in your favour on account of revised DCRG is being remitted separately.

The receipt of the same may please be acknowledged."

Sanction of revised D.C.R.G. mentioned in the communication annexed with the aforementioned communication also shows that an amount of DCRG/service gratuity admissible to the applicant is Rs.218327.00 and an amount of Rs.182700.00 has already been paid to him as DCRG/S.G. and an amount of DCRG/S.G. of Rs.35627.00 is to be paid. Since the aforesaid amount of Rs.35627.00 was not released, he took up the matter with the authority vide communication dated 28.11.2000. According to the applicant, he was also denied with, in addition to Rs.35627.00, a sum of Rs.24,027.00 towards leave encashment. Finally he served a legal notice dated 18.3.1999 on the respondent No.2, since it was not cleared the applicant moved this Tribunal by way of this application assailing the legality of the action of the respondents.

2. The respondents contested the case of the applicant by filing written statement. In the written statement the respondents stated that a sum of Rs.35627.00 could not be released for non recovery of conveyance advance including interest, over payment of TA/DA, recovery of Medical advance etc. It is however, stated that after receiving the information from the concerned Principals regarding total recoveries effected from the applicant, the balance amount of DCRG would be released. This written statement of the respondents was filed on 23.7.2002.

3. None appears for the applicant. Heard Mr.S.Sarma, learned counsel appearing for the respondents. From the facts alluded, it appears that the applicant got superannuation on 28.2.1998. Immediately on retirement of a Govt. employee he or she is to be paid with all retiral benefits with least delay. Law also insisted for panel interest in the case of dereliction in payment of pensionary benefits in time. If some recovery was to be made, it was for the authority to do same, it does not depend upon the violation of the applicant. There was no justification for not releasing the retiral benefits compelling its employee to move the Tribunal. The respondents are directed to release all the retiral benefits due to the applicant within two months from the date of receipt of the order, if not released earlier and for the inordinate delay we order for panel interest @ 12% on the due amount from two months after the date of superannuation on 28.2.1998 on the respondents and direct the authority to pay the same within the period mentioned above, if not already made.

Subject to the observations made, the application is allowed. There shall, however, be no order as to costs.

DETAILS OF THE APPLICATION

1. Particulars of the Orders against which the application is made.

This application is made against the non disposal of representation dt. 28-11-2000 and its reminder dt. 13-3-2001 wherein the applicant has been denied his Death Cum Retirement Gratuity (DCRG) benefit amounting to Rs.35,627/- (Rupees Thirty five thousand six hundred twenty seven) only already sanctioned by the authority and also has been directed against the non-settlement of benefits under General Insurance Scheme (GIS) of which the amount is to be decided by the authority.

2. Jurisdiction of the Tribunal :

The applicant declares that the subject matter of the instant case is within the jurisdiction of the Hon'ble Tribunal.

3. Limitation :

The applicant further declares that the application is filed within the period prescribed under Section 21 of Administrative Tribunal Act, 1985.

contd.....3

T. I. Singh.
(T. Indramani L1)

4. Facts of the Case :

4.1 That the applicant is a Citizen of India and a permanent resident of Manipur and as such he is entitled to all the rights, privileges and protections as guaranteed under the Constitution of India and the laws framed thereunder. The applicant is a retired Principal of an Educational Institution called 'Kendriya Vidyalaya' established under an autonomous body namely 'Kendriya Vidyalaya Sangathan' (KVS for short). The said body was registered as a Society under Societies Registration Act, 1860 and it is wholly financed from the Non-Plan funds of the Government of India.

4.2 That, the applicant who joined Kendriya Vidyalaya as a PG Teacher in the year 1966, retired ~~xx~~ from his service at the capacity of Principal Kendriya Vidyalaya, Umrangso, on 28-2-1998. The competent authority issued an order dt. 26-2-98 terminating the applicant ~~x~~ from service on attaining his age of superannuation.

True copy of the order dated 26-2-98 is annexed herewith
and marked as Annexure-1/1

4.3 That, after his retirement on superannuation, the applicant had not been released and paid his retiral benefits in time. Against such delay in payment of his retiral benefits, the applicant filed a demand notice through his counsel on

contd.....4

T. I. Singh
(T. Indranani Adv.)

18-3-99. After the filing of the said legal notice, certain parts of his retiral benefits save a part of the DCRG and benefits of GIS have already been paid.

True copy of the Demand Notice
dt. 18-3-99 is annexed hereto
and marked as Annexure-2/2

4.4 That, the competent authority has sent a letter dt. 26-5-2000 to the applicant enclosing a sanction order dt. 25-5-2000 for an amount of sum of Rs. 35,627/- (Rupees Thirty five thousand six hundred twenty seven) only in favour of him in addition to his earlier entitlement of DCRG. Despite the receipt of the same, the applicant could not get the said amount and as such he was compelled to submit various representations and reminders. It is pertinent to clarify that the amount of Rs. 24,027/- (Rupees Twenty four thousand twenty seven) only mentioned in the reminder dt. 13-03-2001 as amount of leave encashment has already been paid and the till claimed amount remains as Rs. 35,627/- (Rupees Thirty five thousand six hundred twenty seven) only as claimed in letter dt. 28-11-2000. For perusal of the Hon'ble Tribunal representations dt. 28-11-2000 and reminder dt. 13-3-2001 are made available as Annexures.

True copies of the letter dt. 26-5-2000, order dt. 25-5-2000, letter dated 28-11-2000 and Dt. 13-3-2001 are annexed hereto and marked as Annexures-3/4/5 and 6 respectively.

- 4.5 That, the applicant had been contributing the prescribed deductible amount from his salary for opting GIS from the year 1972 to till his retirement. This fact can be seen from the relevant service Book of the applicant. But nothing has been taken up by the authority for payment of his benefits under the said scheme though more than 3(three) years have passed since his retirement from service.

True copy of the relevant pages of Service Book is annexed herewith and marked as Annexure-7(colly).

5. Grounds for relief with legal provisions :

- 5.1 For that the action of the respondents is not paying any heed to the representations filed by the applicant despite existence of order sanctioning his part of BCRG is illegal and denial of justice.
- 5.2 For that the applicant has retired from his service as far back in the year 1998 and as such settlement of his retiral benefits within a reasonable time as prescribed by law is not made and he has been led running after his entitlement.
- 5.3 For that the applicant has entitled to get his due amount to be accrued from his GIS which he had contributed from the year 1972 to 1997 and as such no settlement and release of his benefits under the scheme even after his retirement from service is nothing but deprivation of his right for getting the same.

T. I. Singh
(T. Indramani)

5.4 For that the Hon'ble Apex Court has rendered various decisions for payment of pensionary benefits observing to the line that "Pension and Gratuity are no longer matters of any bounty to be distributed by Government but are valuable rights acquired and property in their hands and any delay in settlement and disbursement thereof should be viewed seriously and dealt with severely by imposing penalty in the form of payment of interest" as reported in AIS 2001 SC 2435 (Gorakhpur University and others, Appellants V Dr. Shitla Prasad Nagendra and others, Respondents).

Similarly, the Apex Court has rendered its view for payment of penal interest for delay in payment of pensionary benefits upto the tune of 18% per annum. This view has been rendered in a case reported in (1999) 3 SCC 438 (Dr. Uma Agarwal, Appellant V State of U.P., Respondents).

5.5 For that the applicant is entitled to the penal interest for making delay in release of his liabilities by the Respondents as prescribed by law as well as Hon'ble Apex Court.

The applicant craves leave of the Hon'ble Tribunal to advance more grounds at the time of hearing of the original application.

6. Details of remedies exhausted :

The applicant declares that he has exhausted all the departmental remedy open to the applicant except by way of filling this application.

*Dr. I. Singh,
(T. Indrani)*

7. Matters not previously filed or pending before any other Court :

The applicant further declared that he has not filed any application, writ petition or suit before any other Court, authority and/or any other Bench of Honourable Tribunal nor any such application, writ petition or suit is pending before any of them.

8. Relief Sought :

Under the facts and circumstances of the case the applicant prays that this application be admitted and notice be issued to the respondents to show cause as to why the relief sought for in this application shall not be granted, call for and after hearing the parties on the cause or causes that may be shown be pleased to grant.

8.1 To direct the respondents to release and pay the remaining part of the DCRG amounting to Rs. 35,627/- (Rupees Thirty five thousand six hundred twenty seven) only already sanctioned by the authority with penal interest @ 18% from the date of issuance of the sanction order.

8.2 Further, to direct the respondents to settle the outstanding dues of the applicant to be entitled by the applicant from his contribution to GIS from the year 1972 to 1998.

T. I. Singh,
[T. Indramani (A)]

8.3 Cost of the Application.

8.4 Any other relief/reliefs to which the applicant is entitled to under the facts and circumstances of the case and as such may be deemed fit and proper.

9. INTERIM ORDER PRAYED FOR :

Pending disposal of this application the applicant prays for an interim order directing the respondents to make an enquiry against the erring official for such delay in payment of retiral benefits. And pending disposal of the O.A. may not be a bar to release the DCRG amount by the opposite party/respondents.

28-02-98, the date on which my said client superannuated
from being the Principal of K.V. Umrangse under Kendriya Vidyalaya Sangathan Regional Officer - Silchar- Assam.

Whereas, my said client served under your good office for the prime of his life starting from P.G.T. and then promoted to the highest rank to Principal in educational line, who was allowed to retire on superannuation on 28.02.98
but till today you have denied the payment of undergiven heads to my client which is his personal money and assets for which payment of interest is called for unauthorised delay in case no early payment of the following is made :-

Sir,

Please refer to the KVS letter No. and dt. on the subject mentioned above I am to request you that the amount of Rs. 35,627/- (Thirty five thousand six hundred twenty seven) only out of the total amount of DCRG / Service gratuity admissible Rs. 2,18,327.00 which was sent by the 1st week of June 2000 by K.V.S. (H.Q.) is not received till date. After repeated enquiry from the Head Quarters(K.V.S.) it was intimated that Silchar (R.O.) should be contacted and the amount was already sent. It is surprising that for the last six months, the amount has been lying somewhere without notice.

Kindly look into the matter and release the amount so as to favour me to remove my financial constraints.

With best regards.

Encl :- as above.

Yours faithfully,

Sub :- Release of Rs 59,654/- for Service Gratuity and Leave encashment.

(i) Rs 35,627/- remaining amount of service gratuity

(ii) Rs 24,027/- Leave encashment.

Rs 59,654 /- (Total)

Ref :- NO.F. PE/TIS/2000/1-4 dt.24/02/01

Sir,

Please refer to above letter No. and date on the Subject and it is my earnest request that the amount of Rs
59,654 /- is still lying in your office without any notice for so many months.

Kindly look into the matter for early release . In my previous Letters it was already mentioned that I retired on 28/02/98 and my retirement benefits were given after two years. I was supposed to get 12% interest on the whole amount for 4½ lakhs for 2 years.

Still your good office is holding Rs 59,654/- without any reason. Please let me know whether the remaining amount is to be released or not without legal notice, or verdict of the High Court.

For your kind information, I have enclosed a letter from MANITRON Imphal for purchase of Colour T.V. on higher basis on 1995 and the cost of T.V. was not cleared in full.
They charged 18% interest from me and the amount comes as follows :

Cost of T.V.	=	Rs 16,115 /-
Int.@ 18%	=	Rs 12,827 /30
Total	=	Rs 28,942= 30
